Additionally, the authors have written a special section called Taking Stock that buttonholes numerous contemporary dancers, singers, choreographers, musicians, and even Garland impersonators for their take on Summer Stock, its stars, and any enduring legacy they think the film might have. Artists from Mikhail Baryshnikov, Ben Vereen, and Tommy Tune to Garland's and Kelly's daughters, Lorna Luft and Kerry Kelly Novick, respectively, offer their unique perspective on the film and its stars. The MGM story, The Art of Laurel and Hardy Kyp Harness, 2015-01-09. From the early days of film came Laurel and Hardy, a comedy team that created slapstick hilarity from life's simplest situations. Some seventy years after their heyday, Arthur Stanley Jefferson and Oliver Norvell Babe Hardy are still remembered for the comic chaos they created in film shorts. They gave us something to laugh at by reminding us of our own foibles in a way that was genuine and unpretentious. The lanky Stan Laurel (1890-1965) and portly Ollie Hardy (1892-1957) had but one objective: to create as many laughs as would fit in one short film. And that they did. The book begins by exploring their comedy in the early days of film. A chapter is dedicated to each of the boys: Laurel from Ulverston, England, and Hardy from the state of Georgia, as a person and performer. Further chapters explore the slapstick and gags of Laurel and Hardy and how the pair survived the transition to sound, that left behind many actors of the day. It was only when they began to work for large studios churning out cookie-cutter scripts that their art began to lose its way. The book takes the reader through the ups and downs of their careers and to a final comeback. A filmography lists works from 1917 to 1951 with information on availability. Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb, 2020-07-10. Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas. These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon, a newsreel, possibly a serial, and a short before launching into the feature film. Shorts could tackle any topic of interest: an unusual travelogue, a comedy, musical, revues, sports, nature, or popular vaudeville acts. With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s, makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films, using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies. After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television, short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s. This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s. Jacques Tourneur Chris Fujiwara, 2015-05-07. At least three of director Jacques Tourneur's films, Cat People, I Walked with a Zombie, and The Leopard Man, are recognized as horror classics. Yet his contributions to these films are often minimized by scholars, with most of the credit going to the films' producer, Val Lewton. A detailed examination of the director's full body of work reveals that those elements most evident in the Tourneur-Lewton collaborations, the lack of monsters and the stylized use of suggested violence, are equally apparent in Tourneur's films before and after his work with Lewton. Mystery and sensuality were hallmarks of his style, and he possessed a highly artistic visual and aural style. This insightful critical study examines each of Tourneur's films.

as well as his extensive work on MGM shorts 1936 1942 and in television What emerges is evidence of a highly coherent directorial style that runs throughout Tourneur s works Moving Picture Review & Theatre Management ,1930
