Jean Gubbins,Kristin S. McMillen,Rebecca D. Eckert,Catherine A. Little,2023-05-31 Now completely revised and expanded Systems and Models for Developing Programs for the Gifted and Talented includes chapters on the major systems and models for developing programs for the gifted including the Autonomous Learner Model the Integrative Education Model the Multiple Menu Model the Purdue Three Stage Model the Schoolwide Enrichment Model and Levels of Service Forty two experts in gifted education contributed to 25 chapters and each chapter includes a discussion of the model theoretical underpinnings research on effectiveness and considerations for implementations Discussion questions follow each chapter Chapters provide compact yet comprehensive summaries of the major models developed by leaders in the field of gifted education    Encyclopedia of Early Childhood Education Doris Pronin Fromberg,Leslie R. Williams,2012-05-23 This Encyclopedia is a reference work about young children in the USA designed for use by policy makers community planners parents of young children teacher and early childhood educators programme and school administrators among others The field of early childhood education has been affected by changes taking place in the nation s economy demographics schools communities and families that influence political and professional decisions These diverse historical political economic socio cultural intellectual and educational influences on early childhood education have hindered the development of a clear definition of the field The Encyclopedia provides an opportunity to define the field against the background of these influences and relates the field of early childhood education to its diverse contexts and to the cultural and technological resources currently affecting it    Intellectual Giftedness in Young Children Joanne Rand Whitmore,1986 This exciting book challenges old assumptions and offers promising new insights into the nature and special needs of gifted children in the early years Leaders in gifted education blend their professional experiences with the latest research and theories to provide parents and teachers with the practical information they need in order to recognize and nurture the development of gifted children from birth to age eight Clearly and concisely written this book is invaluable as a resource for enhancing parenting and teaching skills and developing new programs and services Read Intellectual Giftedness in Young Children and Discover proven methods of recognizing intellectual giftedness in young children including the handicapped the economically disadvantaged and the culturally different Learn to select or develop effective preschool and K 3 educational programs that provide for the special educational needs of gifted students Gain a more accurate understanding of the nature of giftedness including specific vulnerabilities present in early childhood Enhance your understanding of the pscyhological conflict experienced by gifted children that can foster academic underachievement and problem behavior in school    Integrative Education Betty Jean Eklund Shoemaker,1989    Math Stuff William N. Bailey,2000-12 A must read for teachers of mathematics The perennial question When will I ever use this stuff prompts a parent to look deeply into his son's math program. In his search for the scope and meaning of stuff he finds that the subject of math is totally unlike any other high school subject. Also apparent is that promoted reforms whether politically motivated profit driven or theoretically rooted in educational psychology good or bad generally have a poor long term success rate. The semi fictional often humorous style of Math Stuff provides a multi dimensional view of the diverse elements of reform that to be effective must be jointly addressed. Taking a cue from a good math teacher the book does not give the answers but rather suggests what to think about while determining them.

Resources in Education, 1990    Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted Frances A. Karnes, Suzanne M. Bean, 2021-09-23

The newly revised and updated fourth edition of Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted is an excellent introduction to gifted education and real world learning. The chapters of this comprehensive textbook are written by respected leaders in the field of gifted education. The authors review the unique needs of gifted learners and give current information on instructional planning and evaluation strategies for best practices and ongoing enhancement and support of gifted programs. Chapters include topics such as differentiated curricular design, extending learning through research writing, challenging instructional units, and developing leadership skills and innovative thinkers. Instructional practices such as problem based learning, technology literacy, independent study, simulation and gaming, and more are addressed. A special focus is given to using the Gifted Education Programming Standards and Common Core State Standards. The fourth edition provides updated information on funding sources and public relations strategies for gifted education programs. It also includes updated lists of books, teaching materials, websites, and other resources for teachers of the gifted.

Creative Planning Resource for Interconnected Teaching and Learning Lyn Ellen Lacy, Ann Watts Pailliotet, 2002

Annotation: Drawing from various educational reform theories, this book provides a foundation for interconnected teaching and learning for the whole child and across a curriculum featuring media literacy, multiculturalism, and personal development. Written for pre-service and in-service teachers at the preschool through twelfth grade levels, the book offers advice on planning to accommodate diverse groupings and making the most of limited resources.

Lacy taught in Minneapolis Public Schools. Pailliotet teaches education at Whitman College.
