Walls,2025-03-18 Anyone in the Christian church today who is paying attention knows that Roman Catholics are on the march to win converts But what may be surprising is that many of the persons targeted for conversion are not unbelievers and secularists but rather Christians in other traditions particularly evangelical Protestants Those involved in this mission are themselves often converts from evangelical churches and they are zealous to welcome other believers home to the Church of Rome This book provides a variety of reasons to think twice before taking the plunge and swimming the Tiber Among them are some historical considerations that are often ignored or even suppressed by the zealous evangelists for Rome There are also dubious claims by John Henry Newman the famous nineteenth century convert that are often advanced without sufficient critical scrutiny Moreover converts not infrequently take on the role of amateur theologians and advance highly simplistic claims about a variety of theological matters in popular books that are remarkably successful in terms of sales and publicity This volume examines these and other similar claims and subjects them to the critical analysis they demand

The Teachings of Modern Roman Catholicism on Law, Politics, and Human Nature John Witte (Jr.), John Witte, Frank S. Alexander, 2007 This Landmark three volume series examines how modern Catholic Protestant Orthodox thinkers have responded to the most pressing political legal ethical questions of our time

Organized along sociological structures and themes the book works with examples from a variety of religious traditions and regions rather than focusing in depth on a selection and foregrounds cultural practice based understandings of religion It is therefore a book about religion not religions that explores the relationship of religion with gender and sexuality crime and violence generations politics and media race ethnicity and social class disease and disability highlighting the position of religion in social justice and equality Each chapter of this book is framed around concrete case studies from a variety of Western and non Western religious traditions Students will benefit from thinking about the discipline across a range of geographical and religious contexts The book includes features designed to engage and inspire students Up to date and comprehensive analysis of engaging and accessible material Case Examples short summaries of empirical examples relating to the chapter themes Visually distinct boxes with bullet points key words and phrases focusing on the context Questions suitable for private or seminar study Suggested class exercises for instructors to use Suggested readings and further engages with more contemporary issues such as dissolving the secular sacred binary and paying close attention to issues of epistemology negotiations marginalities feminisms identities power nuances globalization post multiple modernity ies terrorism and fundamentalism on the Muslim side Fundamental thinking in fact has not left the relationship between Islam and Christianity and the attitude to the West and Christianity in the Muslim world have turned to a more radical attitude since the Shah was overthrown in 1979 in Iran One can take this date as the beginning of events such as 9 11 the Gulf Wars or the wars in Afghanistan and Syria where the Islamic State proclaimed a new and even more radical era between Islam and Christianity with the establishment of the caliphate the geographical political and religious expression of fundamental Islamic thinking Things have not yet improved to the better since developments like globalization processes are presently challenging traditional religions with a tendency to fundamental thinking as the seemingly best adapted form of the religious in times of globalization and massive migration waves due to war poverty hunger or environment pollution All these developments are constantly challenging the positive basis of an interreligious dialogue between Muslims and Christians which during the last sixty years was marked by progress and regression on both sides alike Journals of the Legislative Council of the Dominion of New Zealand New Zealand.
