J. Sheppy, 2003 At the beginning of the twenty first century the Christian Church continues to minister to the dying and the bereaved However it does so in a rapidly changing world The traditional understandings of death and life after death are challenged by the disciplines of medicine the law philosophy psychology and anthropology This two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice is written from the author's direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume I Dr Sheppy argues that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study He argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Volume II reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church's concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased      Pastoral Music , 1994      Death and Bereavement Dewi Rees, 1997-01-17 The central theme of this innovative book is the significance that people ascribe to death both within and beyond their religious beliefs and why this should be so The book provides an in depth account of the psychology of death and bereavement and in doing so places these subjects within the contexts of the major world religions and their associated mourning and funeral customs It also includes certain aspects of death such as death bed visions near death experiences and the commonly experienced sense of the presence of the deceased which are not normally included in books dealing with the psychology of death and bereavement      Console One Another Terence P.
