Oratio Mittelalterliche Redekunst In Lateinischer Sprache:

Oratio Haye, 2021-11-01 Medieval history and learning have been deeply influenced by the ancient art of rhetoric In the past time academic research has concentrated on the rhetorical theories of the Middle Ages Artes rhetoricae Artes praedicandi Artes arengandi while the contemporary practice of oratory has been completely neglected Against the still prevailing opinion the present study shows that there is a medieval tradition of Latin speeches delivered on various occasions The author presents a number of highly interesting Latin texts each accompanied by a historical introduction a German translation and an extensive analysis of the rhetorical quality Latinitas Perennis. Volume I: The Continuity of Latin Literature

Jan Papy, Wim Verbaal, Yanick Maes, 2006-10-31 This volume deals with the question of the continuity of Latin literature throughout its history For the first time contributions are brought together from each of the three fields within the studies of Latin literature Classical Medieval and Neo Latin reflecting on problems such as the transmission of the Latin heritage the creation and perpetuation of a classical normativeness and the reactions against it The book is divided into three parts corresponding to the theoretical principle of organic development Beginnings Perfections Transitions thus questioning the validity of a similar evolutionistic model Because of the numerous points of contact between Latin and the national literatures the volume is of particular relevance for the studies of the European literary history Contributors include Davide Canfora Perrine Galand Hallyn Sander Goldberg Thomas Haye Marc van der Poel Michael Roberts Francesco Stella Wim Verbaal Gregor Vogt Spira and Jan Ziolkowski The Archpoet and Medieval Culture Peter Godman, 2014-10-30 This is the first monograph to be published about one of the most famous and least understood authors of the Latin Middle Ages We know him by the pseudonym of Archpoet Setting the Archpoet's world and works in their historical contexts Peter Godman argues that they provide insight into a brilliant counter culture of medieval Germany Its subtlest exponent did not indulge in literary play but refashioned the political social and religious roles available to a twelfth century thinker in order to create for himself and his patron an identity alternative to the norms of clerical conformity prevalent elsewhere in Europe At a time when Germans were being decried as backward barbarians he produced a manifesto of intellectual heterodoxy which wittily challenged the truth claims made by humourless moralists The Archpoet and Medieval Culture reconsiders the categories in which the literature of the Middle Ages is interpreted and suggests a less literal mode of reading the sources to historians

Latinitas Perennis Wim Verbaal, Yanick Maes, Jan Papy, 2007 This volume unites for the first time contributions from the three fields of Latin literature Classical Medieval and Neo Latin reflecting on its continuity Its particular interest for the studies of European literary history lies in the interactions between Latin and the national literatures Poetry and Philosophy in the Middle Ages John Marenbon, Peter Dronke, 2001-01-01 A collection of essays written by pupils friends and colleagues of Professor Peter Dronke to honour him on his retirement The essays address the question of the relationship between poetry and philosophy in the Middle Ages Contributors include Walter Berschin Charles Burnett Stephen Gersh

Michael Herren Edouard Jauneau David Luscombe Paul Gerhardt Schmidt Joe Trapp Jill Mann Claudio Orlandi and John Marenbon It is an important collection for both philosophical and literary specialists scholars graduate students and under graduates in Medieval Literature and in Medieval Philosophy The Oxford Handbook of Neo-Latin Stefan Tilg, Sarah Knight, 2015 From the dawn of the early modern period around 1400 until the eighteenth century Latin was still the European language and its influence extended as far as Asia and the Americas At the same time the production of Latin writing exploded thanks to book printing and new literary and cultural dynamics Latin also entered into a complex interplay with the rising vernacular languages This Handbook gives an accessible survey of the main genres contexts and regions of Neo Latin as we have come to call Latin writing composed in the wake of Petrarch 1304-74 Its emphasis is on the period of Neo Latin's greatest cultural relevance from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries Its chapters written by specialists in the field present individual methodologies and focuses while retaining an introductory character The Handbook will be valuable to all readers wanting to orientate themselves in the immense ocean of Neo Latin literature and culture It will be particularly helpful for those working on early modern languages and literatures as well as to classicists working on the culture of ancient Rome its early modern reception and the shifting characteristics of post classical Latin language and literature Political social cultural and intellectual historians will find much relevant material in the Handbook and it will provide a rich range of material to scholars researching the history of their respective geographical areas of interest Ritual Memory Els Rose, 2009 Ritual Memory brings together two areas of study which have hitherto rarely been studied in comparison liturgy and the apocryphal Acts of the Apostles The book gives an analysis of the liturgical celebration of the apostles in the medieval West and examines the incorporation of the apocrypha in practices of ritual commemoration It reveals the role that liturgy played in the transmission of the apocryphal Acts and visualises the way these narrative traditions developed and changed through their incorporation into a ritual context The result is a dynamic picture of the ritual reception of the extra canonical Acts in the Latin Middle Ages where the apocryphal legends about the apostolic past were approached as memorable traditions on the origins of Christianity Handbuch zur lateinischen Sprache des Mittelalters Peter Stötz, 2004

The Journal of Medieval Latin, 2001 Latin Classics in Medieval Hungary Előd Némekényi, 2004-01-01 The first comprehensive study on the influence of Latin classical texts and traditions in medieval Hungary based on philological and historical analysis of eleventh century sources The author proves that the Latin classics had a stronger impact on the formation of Latin literacy in medieval Hungary than it has been acknowledged before The four chapters of the book The Cathedral School The Admonitions of King Saint Stephen of Hungary The Deliberations of Bishop Saint Gerard of Csanád The Monastic School provide important contributions to the philological study of Medieval Latin and the classical tradition in medieval Central Europe The Rhetoric of Cicero in Its Medieval and Early Renaissance Commentary Tradition Virginia Cox, John O. Ward, 2006 This volume examines the transmission and influence of Ciceronian rhetoric from late antiquity to the fifteenth century examining the relationship between rhetoric and practices as diverse as law dialectic memory theory poetics and ethics Includes an appendix of primary texts New Medieval Literatures 9 (2007) Brepols Publishers,2008-12-31 Gesandtschafts- und Botenwesen im spätmittelalterlichen Europa Konstanzer Arbeitskreis für Mittelalterliche Geschichte.
