Teaching Global Citizenship Lloyd Kornelsen, Geraldine Balzer, Karen M. Magro, 2020-12-18 Teaching Global Citizenship brings together perspectives from former and current teachers from across Canada to tackle the unique challenges surrounding educating for global awareness. The contributors discuss strategies for encouraging young people to cultivate a sense of agency and global responsibility. Reflecting on the educator's experience each chapter engages with critical questions surrounding teaching global citizenship such as how to help students understand and navigate the tension at the heart of global citizenship between universalism and pluralism and how to do so without frightening, regressing, mythicizing, imposing or colonizing. Based on narrative inquiry the contributors convey their insights through stories from their classroom experiences which take place in diverse educational settings from New Brunswick to British Columbia to Nunavut in rural and urban areas and in public and private schools. Covering a broad range of topics surrounding the complexity of educating for global citizenship this timely text will benefit those in education, global citizenship curriculum development and social studies courses across Canada. FEATURES Grounded in narrative inquiry, experiential learning and teacher based research. Includes study questions at the end of each chapter. Written by teachers for teachers with the accessibility of the material, diverse voices and a broad spectrum of classroom settings in mind.

Access ,2003 Supervision in Speech and Language Therapy Cathy Sparkes, Sam Simpson, Deborah Harding, 2024-10-10 Supervision in Speech and Language Therapy Cathy Sparkes, Sam Simpson, Deborah Harding, 2024-10-10 Supervision plays a central role in supporting professional practice, practitioner wellbeing, clinical governance and client safety. This anthology, designed as a collection of possibilities rather than a definitive guide, offers a window into a less visible and rarely discussed aspect of practice. Contributors draw on first-hand encounters of supervision to share insights from both professional and public perspectives. These span practice contexts from pre-registration to qualified and into advanced clinical practice and management roles. The accounts include individual, team, multi-professional, independent and public sector experiences within and beyond the speech and language therapy profession. This book broadens the discourse and deepens understanding about supervision theory and practice. Explores multiple formats and contrasting approaches to lay bare differences in the enactment of supervision as well as variations in underlying assumptions and real life supervision challenges. Holds a mirror up to diverse conversations about supervision across practice contexts and career points to broaden the scope of supervision possibilities. Prompts exploration of new ways to engage with and benefit from supervision as an alternative or adjunct to existing established approaches.

Demonstrates the clear return on investment in supervision at personal departmental service and organisational levels with both professional and public benefit Illustrated throughout with personal stories and professional wisdom this book will interest students and practitioners at all stages of their career in speech and language therapy In addition it will appeal to other allied health and care professionals This anthology aims to stimulate reflection on contemporary issues in supervision as well as individual service and organisational supervision culture and practice The Reader's Choice ,2002
