School Management

Ontario. Department of Education,1922

Management of Disruptive Pupil Behaviour in Schools

Delwyn P. Tattum,1986 Disruptive behaviour in our schools is a major concern of teachers and others involved in education The emphasis of this book is that a preventative approach to the problem is a more valid response than the crisis management approach which results in pupils being sent to special units The book therefore stresses the importance of schools managing their own problem pupils and teachers analysing their own classroom management techniques and interpersonal skills Rather than schools importing solutions the consistent theme is that they should at every level engage in an in house professional analysis of internal structures administrative procedures roles and relationships To this end the book offers practical advice and guidance and gives positive and realistic support
