Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom Building on an examination of theoretical perspectives practical considerations and applications are examined in a format which encourages the reader to explore the context of their own educational institution This book is a core text for the University of Leicester MBA in Educational Management Education Management and Leadership Anusha Naidu, Thandi Ngcobo, 2008 Education leadership and management have changed dramatically since 1994 with the changes in legislation governing schools The new policies involve the learners educators and parents to a larger extent in terms of managing schools This text looks at these changes and the practical implications of the policies It explores management skills such as communication understanding systems planning and accountability It gives detailed explanations of the new management systems by looking at different aspects of each piece of legislation as well as the way in which it relates to the numerous role players involved in managing a school This book has the advantage of taking into account all aspects of managing the whole school environment in a very practical manner Research Methods in Educational Leadership and Management Marianne Coleman, Ann R J Briggs, 2002-08-09 The book is notably successful in the way it combines a review of the principles and methods of research with recent advances in the field The editors claim that it is core reading for those undertaking masters and doctoral level research is well met School Leadership and Management Success of this book is measured by the clarity and coverage of key principles for developing research The audience is treated to an engaging primer that covers all aspects of research By commencing with epistemology ontology and methodology in a non threatening fashion a tone is set that guides the reader through the technical aspects of research in a friendly fashion Journal of Higher Education Policy and Management In a competitive field of educational research methods this book offers those interested in educational leadership and management an alternative conceptualization of research methods and will no doubt help those researching in this field Gill Nicholls British Journal of Educational Studies It can be strongly recommended as an introductory text for students engaged in virtually any field of educational research and readers of this journal should not be deterred by its specialist title Eric Hoyle Escalate The attempt to contextualize methodology does make the work more accessible than other more general texts and it will therefore be particularly useful to those beginning to develop a research approach to their professional context Sue Crowley Learning and Skills Research There are many texts and courses on research methods Each university will have a handful covering the full range of types of research What differentiates this book for Association for Tertiary Education Management ATEM members is the inviting focus on the education sector A consistent theme differentiates and explains the nuances of positivist and phenomenological research By comparing and contrasting qualitative and quantitative methods the reader can confidently place where their own research question sits The text brought me to the point of being clear what are the issues that required deeper thought and the method to access further literature Micheal Koorndyk University of Adelaide Australia This book is the essential guide to research in educational leadership and management It brings together expert original contributions to present a comprehensive and accessible resource for new and experienced researchers in the field The book deals with the concept of research and its philosophical bases fundamental issues like ethics validity and reliability exploring existing literature to inform research the nature of survey case study and action research research tools interviews questionnaires documentary research and diaries observation analysis and presentation of quantitative and qualitative research data writing up and disseminating research This book is a core text for master s level courses in educational management It is accessible for the beginning researcher while at the same time providing stimulating reading for students and practitioners with some research experience

The Principles and Practice of Educational Management Tony Bush, Les Bell, 2002-08-09 The adoption of Principles and Practice of Educational Management as a course reader for the educational MBA should ensure it is successful Though as a thoroughly admirable book in its own right it deserves a much wider readership Masters students as well as educational leaders governors senior managers and administrators in a wide variety of establishments stand to gain a great deal from it Tony Rea Escalante Providing an overview of all major topics within the field of educational management with newly commissioned material from major authors this book reviews relevant theory explains relevant research and provides an unrivalled overview of educational management from an international perspective It includes the following sections The Context of Educational Management Leadership and Strategic Management Human Resource Management Managing Learning and Teaching Managing Finance and Resources Managing External Relations Managing Quality in Education

Managing Financial Resources Harold G. Thomas, 2001 What principles should be adopted when allocating financial resources within higher education institutions How do internal and external factors influence resource allocation systems and what impact do these systems have on institutional and individual behaviour How best should expenditure be monitored in universities and colleges This book provides a practical guide from both departmental and central perspectives to the management of financial resources in institutions of higher education Following a review of the impact of a changing external environment a three stage approach to the allocation of resources is outlined namely understanding sources of income application of strategic considerations and distribution to departments and faculties Concepts of devolution and formula based systems of allocation are considered in the context of the culture and structure of institutions their impact on staff and the way in which institutional and individual behaviour patterns are affected A concluding chapter summarizes themes relating to the management of change and highlights managerial implications

Managing School Districts for High Performance Stacey Childress, 2007 Managing School Districts for High Performance brings together more than twenty case studies and other readings that offer a powerful and transformative approach to advancing and sustaining the work of school improvement At the center of this work is the concept of organizational coherence aligning organizational design human capital management resource allocation and accountability and performance improvement systems to support an overarching strategy This central idea provides a valuable conceptual framework for current and future school leaders The case studies presented in Managing School Districts for High Performance grow out of the Public Education Leadership Project PELP a unique partnership between the Harvard Business School the Harvard Graduate School of Education and a network of urban school districts This rich array of cases explores the managerial challenges districts face as they seek to ensure rich learning opportunities and high achievement for all students across a system of schools This book of insightful case studies fills a void long felt by educational administrators in search of practical real world training tools It will serve as a catalyst for the tough conversations district leaders need to have about achieving high quality outcomes for all students The Broad Center for the Management of School Systems has used many of these cases with great success and we are excited that they are now compiled into a single collection Dan Katzir Managing Director The Broad Foundation This volume is not a treatise about how schools and districts should work Rather it provides a deep immersion in the real dilemmas involved in advancing school district reform Anyone who works through these cases cannot help but come away with a more informed vision for change a more reflective orientation about the interrelationships among the multiple tasks involved and a more prudent grasp of what it takes to educate all children to high academic standards The course of study presented by Managing School Districts for High Performance should be required professional education for anyone charged with advancing a coherent agenda of school improvement in our diverse demanding and rapidly changing society Anthony S Bryk Spencer Professor of Organizational Studies Stanford University This set of case studies offers practitioners policymakers and scholars the opportunity to learn from the collective wisdom and real life experiences of educational leaders involved in systemic transformation Implementing coherent reform strategies designed to improve and sustain student performance often takes place in a vacuum As a former urban superintendent I believe that these selected educational case studies provide a compelling forum for shared experiential teaching and learning Arlene Ackerman Christian A Johnson Professor of Outstanding Educational Practice Teachers College Columbia University This collaboration between the Harvard Business School and the Harvard Graduate School of Education provides a set of analytical tools to address the most complex and challenging issues facing urban public schools The contemporary case studies document actual choices and constraints and point to patterns and similarities across organizations from urban schools to corporate environments Carol Johnson Superintendent Boston Public Schools Stacy Childress is a lecturer at Harvard Business School Richard F Elmore is the Gregory R Anrig Professor of Educational Leadership at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Allen S Grossman is the MBA Class of 1957 Professor of Management Practice at Harvard Business School Susan Moore Johnson is the Pforzheimer Professor of Teaching and Learning at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Educational Leadership and Learning Sue Law, Derek Glover, 2000 Explores key issues facing those aspiring to and those already involved in leadership and management at middle and senior levels Evaluates issues including school improvement innovation organizational culture and the nature of leadership scrutinizing possible management strategies within a changing policy context that is increasingly focused around standards accountability and reputation Law is professor of education and head of the Department of Secondary and Tertiary Education at Nottingham Trent University Glover is visiting professor of education at Nottingham Trent University Distributed by Taylor and Francis Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
