Multi-leadership in Urban Schools Judy A. Alston,2002-10-02 K 12 educational leadership literature highlights the need for co leadership as it relates to school administrative effectiveness While co leadership in the principalship is not a new idea it is a shift in thinking from the traditional model of one principal as school administrator Multi leadership in Urban Schools proposes a model for school administrative leadership through collective administrative responsibility With three distinct people doing three distinct jobs while jointly collaborating in a model of leadership each can contribute to the creation of a community of learning to improve delivery of instruction and maximize student opportunity for academic excellence This text used in educational leadership preparation programs and in urban school districts efforts for reform can re conceptualize urban school leadership influencing effective leadership and contributing to student academic achievement

Fundamental Concepts of Educational Leadership and Management Taher A. Razik,Austin D. Swanson,2010 In a time of high educational expectations and professional accountability today s educational leaders need to possess a broad variety of skills that enable them to function comfortably and effectively in changing environments and under highly politicized conditions Under these circumstances change is the only constant The mission of this book is to foster understanding of this reality among those preparing for administrative and managerial careers in pre collegiate educational institutions and to help them develop skills necessary for working competently within those institutions This text is eclectic in approach not ideological and emphasizes an action research perspective that compels readers to consider critically the theoretical underpinnings of current educational practice and motivates them to seek practical alternative approaches to solving both common and unique problems This book addresses general principles underlying the knowledge base of leadership and management as specifically applied to educational institutions It stirs learners thoughts through the review of scholarship in a wide range of areas encouraging them to critically consider the theoretical underpinnings of administrative practice Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Managing Urban Resources ,1973 Urban Schools Mickey

Lauria,Luis F. Mirón,2005 Urban Schools documents the quality of resistance and identity politics in relation to both the formal and hidden curricula of urban schools their pedagogical practices and their administrative norms and policies Building on the notion that the study of marginality is equally as important as an understanding of the school s structural connections to the wider society Mickey Lauria and Luis F Mir n demonstrate how resistance is much more than a random series of psychological events Indeed within the social context of the formation of racial and ethnic identity in schools in New Orleans Louisiana students acts of resistance alter the ideological structures of schooling School-Based Management Susan Albers Mohrman, Priscilla Wohlstetter, 1994-10-14 Mohrman and Wohlstetter have written the most important volume on school based management to date a significant contribution to the school reform literature Joseph Murphy professor and chair department of educational leadership Vanderbilt University This book examines the school based management strategies that hold the most promise for increasing organizational effectiveness Resources in Education , 1997 Books in Print Supplement , 2002 Current Index to Journals in Education , 2000-04 Guide to Technical, Trade, and Business Schools Mary Goodhue Lynch, 2001-10 Improving Schools Wayne K. Hoy, Michael F. DiPaola, 2008-03-17 Improving Schools Studies in Leadership and Culture explores leadership and culture s impact on school improvement It emphasizes trust s role in school culture with Patrick Forsyth s analysis highlighting how trust among faculty students and parents fosters high academic achievement and positive outcomes Management Education and Development Lyman W.
