The Mandarin Eca De Queiroz,1993-09-01 Eca de Queiroz 1845 1900 is considered to be Portugal's greatest nineteenth century novelist His sharply satirical work aimed to expose the hypocrisies of his age In The Mandarin 1880 and The Relic 1887 however Eca ventured into the world of Fantastic literature His lascivious anti heroes Teodoro and Teodorico are dragged from their narrow Lisbon lives into exotic encounters with Chinese mandarins the Devil in the guise of a dark suited civil servant and Jesus Christ Himself In his short story Jose Matias Eca de Queiroz takes to its logical and tragic comic extreme the concept of the romantic lover worshipping his beloved from afar In all three the collision of provincial egotism and greed with higher or darker forces produces a very distinctive blend of social satire and fantasy

Comparison to World Literature Longxi Zhang,2014-11-19 The study of world literature is on the rise Until recently the term world literature was a misnomer in comparative literature scholarship which typically focused on Western literature in European languages In an increasingly globalized era this is beginning to change In this collection of essays Zhang Longxi discusses how we can transcend Eurocentrism or any other ethnocentrism and revisit the concept of world literature from a truly global perspective Zhang considers literary works and critical insights from Chinese and other non Western traditions drawing on scholarship from a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and integrating a variety of approaches and perspectives from both East and West The rise of world literature emerges as an exciting new approach to literary studies as Zhang argues for the validity of cross cultural understanding particularly from the perspective of East West comparative studies
