Mans Body:

The ethics of Hercules : A study of man's body as the sole determinant of ethical values Robert Chenault Givler,2023-07-11 In The Ethics of Hercules A Study of Man's Body as the Sole Determinant of Ethical Values Robert Chenault Givler explores the intersection of physicality and morality positing that the human body serves as the foundational determinant of ethical frameworks Givler's literary style is both incisive and evocative intertwining philosophical discourse with rich metaphorical language drawing upon the ancient myth of Hercules to illustrate his arguments By contextualizing ethical concepts through a corporeal lens Givler challenges traditional moral philosophy inviting readers to reconsider the implications of bodily existence in ethical decision making Robert Chenault Givler an accomplished philosopher influenced by existentialist thought and classical literature delves deep into the complexities of ethics and morality His background as both a scholar and a practitioner of philosophy led him to question the abstract nature of ethical constructs prompting a return to the tangible essence of humanity and its physical expressions Givler's scholarly pursuits are underscored by a profound commitment to understanding how our corporeal experiences inform our moral judgments This thought provoking text is recommended for any reader intrigued by philosophy ethics or the human condition Givler's nuanced exploration of the body as a determinant of values will resonate with those seeking to engage critically with the complex interplay between physicality and moral reasoning It is a vital contribution to contemporary philosophical discourse inviting readers to reexamine their ethical principles through a refreshing and grounded perspective Man Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer,1962 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This study in theological anthropology considers man as the image of God the meaning of the image immortality and human freedom dealing always with living actual man and his inescapable relation to God Man of the House C.
