Middle East Peace Process:

Syria and the Middle East Peace Process Alasdair Drysdale, Raymond A. Hinnebusch, 1991 In Syria and the Middle East Peace Process Alasdair Drysdale and Raymond A Hinnebusch two noted Middle East scholars present the first detailed examination of Syria's role in the long struggle for an Arab Israeli peace They paint a surprising portrait of a country whose power is out of proportion to its size economy and resources They explore the reasons behind this phenomenon most importantly the Machiavellian brilliance of its leader Hafez al Asad The authors address the origins of the Asad regime Syria's strategy toward its Arab neighbors its conflict with Israel and the history of its relationships with the Soviet Union and the United States The authors argue forcefully that Syrian involvement is vital in an effort to resolve the Arab Israeli conflict

The Middle East Peace Process J. Ginat, Edward Joseph Perkins, Edwin G. Corr, 2002 Political stability is a crucial precondition for peace in the Middle East In The Middle East Peace Process Vision versus Reality Joseph Ginat Edward J Perkins and Edwin G Corr have assembled a comprehensive overview of the complex peace negotiations taking place among Middle Eastern nations to resolve the Israeli Palestinian conflict and forge normal relations between Arab nations and Israel More than thirty academics and practitioners probe discuss and engage themselves with issues concerning the peace process The volume focuses first on the Oslo Agreement and the Palestinian Track then addresses Israeli relations with Egypt Jordan Lebanon Syria and Iraq and concludes with an examination of relations between Israelis and Palestinians in Jerusalem The Middle East Peace Process is the result of the Center for Peace Studies conference The Peace Process in the Middle East cosponsored by the International Program Center at the University of Oklahoma and the University of Haifa in Israel The volume features a foreword by HRH Prince El Hassan bin Talal of Jordan and a preface by David L Boren President of the University of Oklahoma

The Palestinian Delusion Robert Spencer, 2019-12-03 Every new American President has a plan to bring about peace between the Israelis and the Palestinians and every one fails Every peace process has failed in its primary objective to establish a stable and lasting accord between the two parties such that they can live together side by side in friendship rather than enmity But why And what can be done instead While this failure is a consistent pattern stretching back decades there is virtually no public discussion or even basic understanding of the primary reason for this failure The Palestinian Delusion is unique in situating the Israeli Palestinian conflict within the context of the global jihad that has found renewed impetus in the latter portion of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first Briskly recounting the tumultuous history of the peace process Robert Spencer demonstrates that the determination of diplomats policymakers and negotiators to ignore this aspect of the conflict has led the Israelis the Palestinians and the world down numerous blind alleys This has often only exacerbated rather than healed this conflict The Palestinian Delusion offers a general overview of the Zionist settlement of Palestine the establishment of the State of Israel and the Arab Muslim reaction to these events It explores the dramatic and little known history of the various peace efforts showing how and why they invariably broke down or failed to be implemented fully The Palestinian Delusion also provides shocking evidence from the Palestinian media as well as statements from the Palestinian leadership showing that negotiations between Israel and the Palestinians will never work But there is still cause for hope Spencer delineates a realistic viable alternative to the endless and futile peace process that shows how the Jewish State and the Palestinian Arabs can truly coexist in peace without illusions or unrealistic expectations Middle East Peace Process Alfred L.
