Armies and Insurgencies in the Arab Spring Holger Albrecht,Aurel Croissant,Fred H. Lawson,2016-10-18 Following the popular uprisings that swept across the Arab world beginning in 2010 armed forces remained pivotal actors in politics throughout the region As demonstrators started to challenge entrenched autocratic rulers in Tunis Cairo Sana a and Manama the militaries stormed back into the limelight and largely determined whether any given ruler survived the protests In Tunisia Egypt and Yemen senior officers pulled away from their presidents while in Algeria Bahrain and Syria they did not More important military officers took command in shaping the new order and conflict trajectories throughout that region Armies and Insurgencies in the Arab Spring explores the central problems surrounding the role of armed forces in the contemporary Arab world How and why do military apparatuses actively intervene in politics What explains the fact that in some countries military officers and rank and file take steps to defend an incumbent while in others they defect and refrain from suppressing popular protest What are the institutional legacies of the military s engagement during and in the immediate aftermath of mass uprisings Focusing on these questions editors Holger Albrecht Aurel Croissant and Fred H Lawson have organized Armies and Insurgencies in the Arab Spring into three sections The first employs case studies to make comparisons within and between regions the second examines military engagements in the Arab uprisings in Yemen Bahrain and Syria and the third looks at political developments following the cresting of the protest wave in Egypt Tunisia Libya and the Gulf The collection promotes better understanding not only of the particular history of military engagement in the Arab Spring but also of significant aspects of the transformation of political military relations in other regions of the contemporary world Contributors Holger Albrecht Risa A Brooks Cherine Chams El Dine Virginie Collombier Aurel Croissant Philippe Droz Vincent Kevin Koehler Fred H Lawson Shana Marshall Dorothy Ohl David Pion Berlin Tobias Selge Robert Springborg

American Book Publishing Record, 2002 Handbook of Political Islam in Europe Thomas Jäger, Ralph Thiele, 2024-03-31 This book approaches the field of Political Islam from a European security perspective Featuring various case studies and country surveys written by respected experts in the field it offers a comparative perspective and comprehensive overview of the ideology and prevalence of Political Islam and its actors in more than 20 European states The respective contributions identify key actors of Political Islam and reveal the activities means and strategies they pursue and employ across the continent They also discuss if and how Political Islam could undermine the Western liberal democratic order and its associated values By doing so the volume offers approaches to analyzing Political Islam and thereby strengthening the resilience of liberal democratic societies while also protecting Muslims from the radical ideology and agenda of Political Islam Chapter Hybridizing Islam in the Balkans The Rise of Salafi Hanafism in Bulgaria is licensed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/> For further details see license information in the chapter div

Political Economies of the Middle East and North Africa Robert Springborg, 2020-03-16

Despite its oil wealth the Middle East and North Africa is economically stagnating Growth rates are comparatively unfavorable and insufficient to substantially improve citizens lives Whether this economic inertia can be overcome or will continue into the indefinite future is a vital question that confronts both the region and the world In this book leading Middle East scholar Robert Springborg discusses the economic future of this region by examining the national and regional political causes of its contemporary underperformance Overgrown weak MENA states he explains have been unable to escape their unfavorable historical legacies Limited access orders and the deep states based in the means of coercion that underpin them undermine state capacities and constrain beneficial autonomous political and economic activity Increasingly challenged by their populations MENA states face the daunting and so far unmet challenge of diversifying non sustainable rentier political economies away from direct or indirect dependence on oil and gas revenues Stagnation of those revenues and failure to generate alternative income sources combined with rapid population growth presents the region with an economic challenge that can only be overcome by profound political change
