Middle Eastern Lectures Martin S. Kramer,1999      Middle Eastern Lectures Martin Kramer,1999-01-01 Middle Eastern Lectures a biennial publication of the Moshe Dayan Center at Tel Aviv University is a compilation of outstanding lectures delivered by visitors to the Center In this collection of essays Farhad Kazemi and Olivier Roy consider the remarkable election of Mohammad Khatami as Iran s president Fred Halliday looks at the Middle East s many strains of nationalism Johannes J G Jansen compares Islamic fundamentalism to its Christian and Jewish counterparts and Alastair Hamilton reviews Enlightenment scholarship on Islam      2003 Lectures ,2004      State and Society in the Ottoman Empire Haim Gerber,2024-10-28 This book has three main themes the socio economic history of Turkish society in the 17th 18th centuries the outcome of the Tanzimat Reforms in the province of Jerusalem as an example of the whole phenomenon and the historical origins of Turkish and Arab identities leading to the modern phenomenon of nationalism Many of the studies are based on archival research and the documents give a new picture of the issues involved Thus women were much more involved in the public arena and in economic life of the city that formerly thought the urban family at this time was much smaller and nuclear like on the whole much more modern looking than anticipated In the same way Turkish society was far from being despotically oppressed by the Ottoman centre with several institutions existing in it that gave substance to the term civil society In the context of the 19th century it was found that judging by the case of the province of Jerusalem the final phase of the Tanzimat really tipped the balance in favour of the success of this whole movement of Reform Ottoman society and Ottoman state became much more orderly and at ease with themselves than before or at least than the stormy decades of the early 19th century The final studies show that the Ottoman period and the structure of the Ottoman state more properly exerted much influence on the forms of nationalism that developed in the Middle East after the Ottoman downfall

Index Islamicus ,2007      Routledge Handbook of the Arab Spring Larbi Sadiki,2014-12-17 The self immolation of Mohammed Bouazizi in Tunisia in December 2010 heralded the arrival of the Arab Spring a startling yet not unprecedented era of profound social and political upheaval The meme of the Arab Spring is characterised by bottom up change or the lack thereof and its effects are still unfurling today The Routledge Handbook of the Arab Spring seeks to provide a departure point for ongoing discussion of a fluid phenomenon on a plethora of topics including Contexts and contests of democratisation The sweep of the Arab Spring Egypt Women and the Arab Spring Agents of change and the technology of protest Impact of the Arab Spring in the wider Middle East and further afield Collating a wide array of viewpoints specialisms biases and degrees of proximity and distance from events that shook the Arab world to its core the Handbook is written with the reader in mind to provide students practitioners diplomats policy makers and lay readers with contextualization and knowledge and to set the stage for further discussion of the Arab Spring      Elie Kedourie's Approaches to History and Political Theory Sylvia Kedourie,2013-10-18 Elie Kedourie was one of the twentieth century s most important and controversial historians of the Middle East He redefined the landscape of the field by challenging the notion that the West's imperial domination of the region spawned nationalism in Arab countries In a long career lecturing in politics at the London School of Economics Kedourie inspired a generation of political scientists and politicians A dedicated scholar and meticulous teacher he founded Middle Eastern Studies a journal which forty years after its launch remains one of the leading publications in the field and a monument to his work Bringing together some of the most distinguished figures in Middle Eastern studies this collection evaluates Kedourie's contribution to Middle Eastern history and political thought and assesses the impact of his scholarly legacy The volume contains a complete bibliography of his writing and was previously published as a special issue of Middle Eastern Studies Beyond Sacred and Secular Sultan Tepe, 2008 Comparing the politics of Judaism and Islam this book demonstrates that common religious political party characteristics in Israel and Turkey can be as striking as their differences Nation and Religion Fred Halliday, 2014-05-14 This collection of essays offers a general analysis of the Middle East and more focused country by country examples Nationalism and Islamism are re-examined to demonstrate their ongoing relevance and relationship to the present day Arab context and identity This is followed by a closer look at Islamist movements in Turkey Iran and Tunisia and how these forces may either come to erode the secular state as in Turkey and Tunisia or bolster the Islamic one in the case of Iran The author also examines the fate of the eight remaining monarchies of the Arab world and the conditions of their emergence consolidation and continuation

The Muslim World Book Review, 2000 The International Politics of the Red Sea Anoushiravan Ehteshami, Emma C. Murphy, 2013-03 This book examines the international politics of the Red Sea region from the Cold War to the present It argues that the Red Sea region demonstrates well the characteristics of a sub regional system with increasing economic and social interdependence greater regional integration with the stronger regional powers Egypt Israel and Saudi Arabia seeking to establish their influence over the sub region and with all states forming regional alliances to protect their interests and to fend off possible encroachment of others The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2007 Modern Iran Since 1921 Ali M. Ansari, 2003 This is fundamentally a book about change and the politics of managing that change as successive governments and political elites sought and continue to seek to navigate a stable and sustainable route from a perception of tradition to a particular conception of modernity introd Announcements University of Chicago, 1929 The Newsletter of the Fern & Manfred Steinfeld Program in Judaic Studies, 1994 The Rise of the Islamic Movement in Sudan (1945-1989) Mustafa A. Hanshaw, 2010 Hanshaw explores the often competing demands that confront American Muslims from Islamic religious law and secular law The conflict extends into many aspects of daily life ranging from issues concerning divorce and child custody to the interpretation of contracts The receptivity of U S courts to claims rooted in Islamic legal principles has been uneven leaving Muslims in a state of
