

middle, menopause, perimenopause, and life's transitions are familiar to most women. Recently, HHS' announcement, concerning the availability of HRT and other treatments to combat menopausal symptoms, has triggered a new interest in the use of complementary therapies to combat the "Goddess-like" symptoms of menopause. Despite the recent findings of the Women's Health Initiative, many women are still seeking alternative treatments for menopausal symptoms. This book will help women learn how to manage their health during this important phase of life.
