She could steamroll anyone. Anyone but Ethan. The cagey P.I. would never tell her his prime suspect was her brother. Nor could he hide his attraction red hot out of control and licking at her heels. To a society deb like Claudia Ethan was rough around the edges and used caveman tactics to get his way. Yet that earthy animal attraction threatened to eat her alive. Claudia had never been bested by a man but working closely with Ethan desperately trying to keep her hands off him she wondered if she'd met her match.

Filmmakers' Choices John Gibbs, 2006 Designed for the launch of the Close Up series Filmmakers Choices explores different areas of decision making within film production focusing on each in the analysis of a film. The discussion of Talk to Her Pedro Almodóvar 2002 examines the detailed construction of point of view the account of Lured Douglas Sirk 1947 is simultaneously a reflection on narrative construction and a look at the creative possibilities of coincidence. The Pop Song in Film offers a series of detailed interpretations of moments in films where the pop song adopts a decisive storytelling role. The study focuses on both on screen musical performances and the use of the song as a kind of musical voiceover. Reading Buffy looks at Joss Whedon's acclaimed television series Buffy the Vampire Slayer through a close reading approach more usually applied to films. The series is seen not just to create a richly detailed and satisfying fictional world but to be an abundant source of complex meanings. Several aspects of Buffy are examined its visual intelligence the playful sophistication of its narrative strategies and the interest the series takes in its relationship with its many fans.
