Midnight Blue A Police Story:

The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson s victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

Time Out Film Guide John Pym, 2004 This guide is a collection of engaging and provocative capsule reviews of films across the spectrum of cinema history from Russian silent movies to American comedies classic documentaries to Japanese anime and beyond

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema

Taller Than Trees Roger Young, 2012-12-18 Southern Rhodesia Central Africa March 1914 A trooper of police sent to contain a lawless settlement near Bulawayo the countrys largest city told on his arrival there that all the violence was caused by government restrictions not true took them at their word and made a single simple rule No one may initiate the use of force including me simple because to him it was no more than a policemen's job Common Law would be upheld he said robbery rape fraud etc Statute Law restrictions wouldn't If they obeyed it so would he that was the deal and his grim reputation needed only to be tested once After this he withdrew and let them all get on with their affairs He was thought to be from the American Far West and his rule being based upon a moral principle initiating force is wrong which can't be circumvented by the Law police politics or even at the will of a majority with taxes and legislation set aside and everything done willy nilly by agreement not by vote sure enough and right away Queenstown became like one in the American Far West a free society But with this difference no force eliminated anything to do with government Question But how can a society exist let alone succeed without a government Answer This is what the book is all about The Golden Years of Broadcasting Robert Campbell, 1976 Joseph Brodsky Lev Losev, 2011-01-04 The work of Joseph Brodsky 1940 1996 one of Russia's great modern poets has been the subject of much study and debate His life too is the stuff of legend from his survival of the siege of Leningrad in early childhood to his expulsion from the Soviet Union and his achievements as a Nobel Prize winner and America's poet laureate In this penetrating biography Brodsky's life and work are illuminated by his great friend the late poet and literary scholar Lev Loseff Drawing on a wide range of source materials some previously unpublished and extensive interviews with writers and critics Loseff carefully reconstructs Brodsky's personal history while offering deft and sensitive commentary on the philosophical religious and mythological sources that influenced the poet's work Published to great acclaim in Russia and now available in English for the first time this is literary biography of the first order and sets the groundwork for any books on Brodsky that might follow Spy, 1991-05 Smart Funny Fearless It's pretty safe to say that Spy was the most influential magazine of the 1980s It might have remade New York's cultural landscape it definitely changed the whole tone of magazine journalism It was cruel brilliant beautifully written and perfectly designed and feared by all There's no magazine I know of that's so continually referenced held up as a benchmark and whose demise is so lamented Dave Eggers It's a piece of garbage Donald Trump The Complete Actors' Television Credits, 1948-1988 James Robert Parish, Vincent Terrace, 1989 Chronicles the individual performances of 1 587 performers from 1948 to 1988 including cartoon pilot variety telefilm and documentary credits While only a few reference sources deserve to be called essential this important work justifies superlatives ARBA The Time Out Film Guide John Pym, 1995 Newsweek Raymond Moley, Samuel Thurston Williamson, Malcolm Muir, Rex Smith, Joseph Becker Phillips, 2009 The BFI Companion to Crime Phil Hardy, 1997 A complete and detailed guide to crime on film prison dramas film noir heist movies juvenile delinquents serial killers bank robbers and many other subgenres and motifs The historical and social background to movie crime is
