Migrant Belongings:

Migrant Belongings Anne-Marie Fortier, 2020-06-03 This book traces the formation of Italian migrant belongings in Britain and scrutinizes the identity narratives through which they are stabilized A key theme of this study is the constitution of identity through both movement and attachment The study follows the Italian identity project since 1975 when community leaders first raised concerns about the future of invisible immigrants The author uses the image of invisible immigrants as the starting point of her inquiry for it captures the ambivalent position Italians occupy within the British political and social landscape As a cultural minority absorbed within the white European majority their project is steeped in the ideal of visibility that relies on various displays of presence Drawing on a wide range of material from historical narratives to political debates processions religious rituals activities of the Women's Club war remembrances card games and beauty contests the author explores the notion of migrant belongings in relation to performative acts that produce what they claim to be reproducing She reveals how these acts work upon the historical and cultural environment to re-member localized terrains of migrant belongings while they simultaneously manufacture gendered generational and ethnicized subjects Located at the crossroads of cultural studies diaspora studies and feminist queer theory this book is distinctive in connecting an empirical study with wider theoretical debates on identity Nominated for the Philip Abrams Memorial Book Prize 2001

The Shape of Belonging for Unaccompanied Young Migrants Özlem Ögtem-Young, 2024-05-28 Unaccompanied children and adolescents seeking protection in the UK are among the most vulnerable migrant groups and often find themselves in a hostile policy environment after enduring traumatic journeys This book offers an in-depth analysis of the lived experiences of belonging and the politics and policies of migration Focusing on unaccompanied young migrants it investigates the conditions and nature of belonging in the face of the uncertainty ambiguity and violence of the UK asylum system Drawing on interviews and the Deleuzo-Guattarian concepts of assemblage the book provides an empirical and theoretical examination of the belonging of unaccompanied young migrants seeking protection in the UK Through compelling accounts the author portrays the complex and paradoxical nature of belonging under precarious conditions shedding light on the tenacity and fragility of belonging for unaccompanied young migrants

The Discursive Construction of European Identities Michał Krzyżanowski, 2010 This book looks at the discursive construction of European identities in a variety of institutional and non-institutional contexts and through a variety of social and political actors Its multilevel and interdisciplinary approach rooted in the Discourse Historical tradition of Critical Discourse Analysis allows for a comparison of identity constructions at different levels of Europe's social and political organisation and in different modes of communication The book analyses discourses as diverse as those of the EU politicians of Europe's national media as well as of migrants living in Europe It offers a set of integrated models and analytical procedures which bring to the fore the inherent dynamism and complexity of both bottom-up and top-down European identity constructions addresses a rich corpus of contemporary narratives by authors who have come to Italy as migrants. It traces the figurative commonalities that emerge across these diverse texts which together suggest the shape and substance of what might be termed migrant imaginaries. Examining five central figures and concepts: identity, memory, home, place and space and literature across a range of novels and stories by writers of African and Middle Eastern origin, the study elucidates the affective and expressive processes that inflect migrant story telling. Drawing on the work of cultural theorists such as Sara Ahmed and Michel de Certeau as well as on recent work in postcolonial literary studies, memory studies, human geography and feminist theory, the book probes the varied works of Shirin Ramzanali, Fazel Amara, Lakhous, Mohsen Melliti, Younis Tawfik and many others. Each chapter posits alternative interpretations of the ways in which the interior experience of encounters across territories, cultures and languages is figured in this literature. In doing so, the book moves towards a wider apprehension of recent Italian migration narratives as suggestions of what a new notion of contemporary Italian literature might look like, figured at once within and beyond the boundaries of a national literature, a national language and a national cultural imaginary.

Migration, Belonging and the Nation State Alperhan Babacan, Supriya Singh, 2010. The book questions how modern migration and globalisation have impacted upon notions of belonging and identity within nation states across the world. This book provides theoretical and empirical accounts of the relationship between identity, rights, nationalism, race and ethnicity. The authors cover the complexity of the topic as identification has become much more multifaceted. The authors cover difficult and cutting edge issues relating to citizenship, nation formation, identity, remittances, transnational families, migration and asylum in the context of Australia, Malaysia, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. These critical issues inform and shape key policy and program responses of many governments and are subject of topic in international relations forums between nation states.
