Birthplace, Migration and Crime Ronald D. Francis,2014-03-26 An historical and contemporary account of migrant crime in Australia this book explores a range of issues from mental health and victimology to immigration policy and legal analysis arguing that it is birthplace not race which impacts upon crimes committed by migrants Birthplace, Migration and Crime Ronald D. Francis,2014-03-26 An historical and contemporary account of migrant crime in Australia this book explores a range of issues from mental health and victimology to immigration policy and legal analysis arguing that it is birthplace not race which impacts upon crimes committed by migrants Research Handbook on Transnational Crime Valsamis Mitsilegas,Saskia Hufnagel,Anton Moiseienko,2019-12-27 This Research Handbook on Transnational Crime is an interdisciplinary up to date guide to this growing field written by an international cohort of leading scholars and experts It covers all the major areas of transnational crime providing a well rounded detailed discussion of each topic and includes chapters focusing on responses to transnational crime in specific regions Race, Criminal Justice, and Migration Control Mary Bosworth,Alpa Parmar,Yolanda Vázquez,2018-01-12 The criminalization of migration is heavily patterned by race By placing race at the centre of its analysis this volume examines questions and explains the growing intersection between criminal justice and migration control Through the lens of race we see how criminal justice and migration enmesh in order to exclude stop and excise racialized citizens and non citizens from societies across the world within beyond and along borders Race and the meaning of race in relation to citizenship and belonging is excavated through the chapters presented in the book and the book as a whole thereby transforming the way we think about migration Neatly organized in four sections the book begins with chapters that present a conceptual analysis of race borders and social control moving to the institutions that make up and shape the criminal justice and migration complex The remaining chapters are convened around the key sites where criminal justice and migration control intersect policing courts and punishment Together the volume presents a critical and timely analysis of how race shapes and complicates mobility and how racism is enabled and reanimated when criminal justice and migration control coalesce The Australian Criminal Justice System Duncan Chappell, Paul R. Wilson, 1994 Immigrants and Crime in Australia Australia.
