Migration And Development In The Caribbean The Unexplored Connection:

Migration And Development In The Caribbean Robert Pastor, 2019-03-08 This book represents the product of a two year research project and a four year personal journey to explore the relationship between migration and economic development in the Caribbean area Does Caribbean immigration to the United States assist or impede the economic development of the Caribbean Would the curtailment of immigration affect the stability of the Caribbean Can a certain mix of development strategies significantly reduce the pressures for migration What can the United States and the Caribbean countries do separately and together to improve the prospects for economic development while permitting migration at manageable levels This book begins with these questions and ends with some answers

Cultural Geography, Form and Process Neelam Grover, Kashi N. Singh, 2004 Covers A Wide Range Of Cultural Concerns Such As Methodological Statements Impression Of Culture On Landscape Cultural Processes And Change Cultural Traits And Distribution And Cultural Ecology Has 29 Papers Contributed By Eminent Geographers From Indian And Abroad Researchers In Cultural Geography Anthropology Sociology And History Will Find It Useful

Nations Unbound Linda Basch, Nina Glick Schiller, Cristina Szanton Blanc, 2020-07-24 Nations Unbound is a pioneering study of an increasing trend in migration transnationalism Immigrants are no longer rooted in one location By building transnational social networks economic alliances and political ideologies they are able to cross the geographic and cultural boundaries of both their countries of origin and of settlement Through ethnographic studies of immigrant populations the authors demonstrate that transnationalism is something other than expanded nationalism By placing immigrants in a limbo between settler and visitor transnationalism challenges the concepts of citizenship and of nationhood itself

Haiti's Development Through Expatriate Reconnection Tatiana K. Wah, 2003 A conceptual frame work for examining strategic processes of utilization of expatriates Haitis development 250pp

The West Indian Americans Holger Henke Ph.D., 2000-11-30 The West Indian Americans introduces students and other interested readers to the diversity and cultural individuality of a growing segment of the American immigrant community After an introductory chapter that describes the history and people of Jamaica and the other English speaking Caribbean nations their migration to the United States and patterns of adjustment and adaptation are discussed Next the West Indian cultural traditions transferred to this country especially the churches literature music and festivals are evoked Another chapter covers family networks return migration and remittances to those members left behind in the West Indies Final chapters examine the new challenges for the West Indian Americans such as identity issues education and job prospects and gang and drug problems and the contributions of West Indian immigrants

Working Papers, 1990-07

Sending Money Home Rodolfo O. De la Garza, Briant Lindsay Lowell, 2002 For international migrants seeking employment in the United States the desire to remit a portion of their earnings to their home countries is a time honored custom The flow of money southward from the United States has evolved from a stream flowing from families through informal networks to a major river with new tributaries fed by transnational migrant organizations channeled through an increasingly formal marketplace and attracting the involvement of home country governments This volume tracks the evolution of the flow of money home offering new data to enhance the picture and understanding of this important economic phenomenon

Tourism and the Millennium Development Goals Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, Haretsebe Manwa, 2013-10-31 In 2000 United Nations adopted the Millennium Development Goals UN MDGs committing the member nations to a new global partnership to reduce extreme poverty and setting out a series of specific targets with a deadline of 2015 Related to the UN MDGs tourism is increasingly seen as a promising tool for poverty reduction ensuring environmental sustainability and developing a global partnership for development for example Thus the industry has become an important policy tool for community and regional development in many developing countries and the expectations for tourism and its social and economic outcomes have evolved to a high level However there are still many challenges to overcome in the relationship between tourism industry development and poverty reduction This book aims to discuss the promises challenges and outcomes of tourism in development with a specific aim of drawing together research related to tourism and UN MDGs The papers discuss what lessons can be learnt and conclusions drawn from the utilisation of tourism for development and poverty reduction What emerges from this collection is a set of interesting results and notions which both support and challenge the connections between tourism and development and the new role of tourism in global development This book is an extended version of a special issue published in Current Issues in Tourism

Migration and Transnational Social Spaces Ludger Pries, 1999 Although globalisation brings work to some places all over the world the growing international mobility of workers and refugees will be one of the strongest social and political challenges at the end of this century At the same time and in part originated by globalisation and transnational migration there is emerging a qualitative new social reality of transnational social spaces built by pluri locally spanned social institutions life trajectories and the biographical projects in specific institutional settings and material infrastructures This volume presents conceptual frameworks and empirical studies of transnational migration processes and the emergence of pluri social transnational social spaces

Towards a Transnational Perspective on Migration Nina Glick Schiller, Linda Green Basch, Cristina Szanton Blanc, 1992 This work comprising 15 papers develops a broad understanding of the emerging transnational experience of current immigrants to the United States compares the patterns of transnationalism of different migrating populations and re examines current conceptualisations of race ethnicity nationalism class and gender

Caribbean Region World Bank, 1993 The objective of this report is to focus attention on the performance problems needs and prospects of the fifteen Caribbean countries which are members of both the Caribbean Group for Cooperation in Economic Development and the World Bank It provides an overview of overall developments affecting the Caribbean countries over the past fifteen years as well as progress achieved during this period The efforts

needed to accelerate the implementation of the reform agenda are examined focusing on the conditions needed to achieve macroeconomic stability efforts needed to accelerate privatization trade reform and domestic deregulation and developments regarding the various preferential agreements which benefit the Caribbean countries The paper examines the flow of resources to the Caribbean countries since 1978 and relates it to the process of adjustment and growth during this period and to the efforts required to strengthen this process during the 1990s It also presents estimates of assistance needed during 1992 93 The report evaluates the stock of human resources indicates the incidence of poverty assesses the positive and negative factors affecting human resource development regional policy options and highlights the human resource development issues for the 1990s The ecosystems in the Caribbean countries are also described Farm Production and Migration in Jamaica and St. Lucia Elsa Chaney, Derek Gordon, 1990 Tunga Moussa Konate, 1997 Haitian Immigrants in Black America Flore Zephir, 1996 Written by a member of the Black Haitian community this book brings to life the mechanisms that shape Haitian immigrant identity and underscores the complexity of such an identity Zephir explains why Haitians define themselves as a distinct ethnic group and examines the various parameters of Haitian ethnicity Through hundreds of interviews the author gathered the voices of Haitians as they speak as they feel and most importantly how they experience America and its system of racial classification This work is a description of the diversity of the Black population in America and an effort to dispel the myth of a monolithic minority or sidestream culture The West Indian Americans Holger Henke, 2001 Henke clearly relates who the groups are from the Jamaicans to the Garifuna why they left their homelands how they have adapted and impacted this country and the new challenges they face Many notable West Indian Americans are profiled BOOK JACKET Mexican and Central American Population and U.S. Immigration Policy Frank D. Bean, Jurgen Schmandt, Sidney Weintraub, 1989 This collection of twenty essays provides an integrated view of migration in North America within and between Canada the Caribbean Mexico and the United States during the past two centuries A Student's Guide to African American Genealogy Anne E. Johnson, Adam Merton Cooper, 1996 This major contribution to young adult genealogy studies helps create ethnic pride self esteem and awareness of the extraordinary accomplishments each ethnic group has brought to the American experience Designed for use in grades 6 12 this important series explores the creation of the American people while promoting the use and understanding of solid research techniques Oryx American Family Tree Series enhances the social studies curriculum especially the thematic strands in the New Curriculum Standards for Social Studies Policy, Planning and Management of Education in Small States Kevin M. Lillis, 1993
