Miguel de Unamuno, the Contrary Self Frances Wyers,1976      Unamuno's Theory of the Novel C.A.

Longhurst,2017-07-05 Miguel de Unamuno 1864 1936 is widely regarded as Spain's greatest and most controversial writer of the first half of the twentieth century Professor of Greek and later Rector at the University of Salamanca and a figure with a noted public profile in his day he wrote a large number of philosophical political and philological essays as well as poems plays and short stories but it is his highly idiosyncratic novels for which he coined the word nivola that have attracted the greatest critical attention Niebla Mist 1914 has become one of the most studied works of Spanish literature such is the enduring fascination which it has provoked In this study C A Longhurst a distinguished Unamuno scholar sets out to show that behind Unamuno's fictional experiments there lies a coherent and quasi philosophical concept of the novelesque genre and indeed of writing itself Ideas about freedom identity finality mutuality and community are closely intertwined with ideas on writing and reading and give rise to a new and highly personal way of conceiving fiction

The Formation of the Self in the Novels of Miguel de Unamuno Jan E. Evans,2001      This Side of Philosophy Stephen Gingerich,2023-02-01

Struck by the contrast between the prestige of their literary tradition and their apparent philosophical insignificance modern writers from Spain have devoted themselves to exploring the relation between literature and philosophy This Side of Philosophy focuses on four major authors Miguel de Unamuno Jos Ortega y Gasset Antonio Machado and Mar a Zambrano who engage literary resources in order to reach beyond philosophy to the essential sources of life Connecting their work to that of other European thinkers dedicated to illuminating the fertile interaction of literature and philosophy especially Plato Schlegel Heidegger and Derrida Stephen Gingerich makes a case for the relevance of Spanish thought to contemporary efforts to expand the ethical and theoretical powers of thinking through literature At the same time Gingerich challenges the conventional view that contemporary Spanish thought fuses or reconciles literature and philosophy instead discerning a call to appreciate their difference in relation For these writers literature and philosophy are repulsed by each other as inexorably as they are drawn together
