Mihipeka Time Of Turmoil:

Mihipeka Mihi Edwards,2001-08-01 Mihipeka is the story in her own words of Mihi Edwards known to her family and friends as Aunty Mihi This book is her story of the early years of a Maori woman growing up in rural New Zealand This is the continuation of Aunty Mihi s story begun in Mihipeka Early Years It is a powerful honest and marvellously evocative view of New Zealand during World War II and the fifties through the eyes of a young Maori woman desperately trying to fit into the Pakeha system    Indigenous Peoples and the Second World War R. Scott Sheffield, Noah Riseman, 2019 A transnational history of how Indigenous peoples mobilised en masse to support the war effort on the battlefields and the home fronts

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Women's Experiences of the Second World War Mark J. Crowley, Sandra Trudgen Dawson, 2021 Using a very wide range of detailed sources the book surveys the many different experiences of women during the Second World War    Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla, 2023 Of Love and War details the intimate relationships forged during wartime between women and U S servicemen stationed in the South Pacific traces the fate of wartime marriages and addresses consequences for the women and children left behind    Gender and Power in the Pacific Katarina Ferro, Margit Wolfsberger, 2003 Women from the Pacific Islands are often perceived by Europeans as passive beauties dancing the hula with a flower in their hair as docile companions of European or local men or as naive personalities surrounded by an endangered environment But far from that male Western reception of women s status which can be found in documentaries motion pictures as well as travel and adventure literature women are active and resolute agents who self confidently shape their societies through their courageous and determined acting in public as well as in their communities The current volume of Novara Contributions to Research on the Pacific wants to deliver insights into the lives of women from the Pacific Islands and shows how they deal with shifting gender relations in changing societies Traditions and adjustment processes to changing living conditions of women and men in Papua New Guinea Palau and New Zealand present fascinating research fields which open up the view to new living models apart from Western gender concepts    Mihipeka Mihi Edwards, 1992 This is the continuation of Aunty Mihi s story begun in Mihipeka early years It is a powerful honest and marvellously evocative view of New Zealand during World War II and the fifties through the eyes of a young M ori woman desparately trying to fit into the P keh system Back cover

A History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes, 2016-02-15 What would a history of New Zealand look like that rejected Thomas Carlyle s definition of history as the biography of great men and focused instead on the experiences of women One that shifted the angle of vision and examined the stages of this country s development from the points of view of wives daughters mothers grandmothers sisters and aunts That considered their lives as distinct from though often unwillingly influenced by those of history s great men In her ground breaking History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes provides just such a history This is more than an account of women in New Zealand from those who arrived on the first waka to the Grammy and Man Booker Prize winning young women of the current decade It is a comprehensive history of New Zealand seen through a female lens Brookes argues that while European men erected the political scaffolding to create a small nation women created the infrastructure necessary for colonial society to succeed Concepts of home marriage and family brought by settler women and integral to the developing state transformed the lives of M ori women The small scale of New Zealand society facilitated rapid change so that by the twenty first century women are no longer defined by family contexts In her long awaited book Barbara Brookes traces the factors that drove that change Her lively narrative draws on a wide variety of sources to map the importance in women s lives not just of legal and economic changes but of smaller joys such as the arrival of a piano from England or the freedom of riding a bicycle     Childhoods Gaile Sloan Cannella,Lourdes Diaz Soto,2010 For the past 20 years a range of scholars educators and cultural workers have examined dominant discourses of childhood using critical feminist and other postmodern perspectives Located in a variety of disciplines these poststructural deconstructive and even postcolonial critiques have challenged everything from notions of the universal child to adult child dualisms to deterministic developmental theory The purpose of this volume is to acknowledge the profound contributions of that large body of literature while demonstrating the ways that critical analyses can be used to generate avenues actions that increase possibilities for social justice for those who are younger while at the same time avoiding determinism In this time of globalization hyper capitalism and discourses that would control and disqualify through constructions like accountability we believe that projects such as this are of utmost importance The volume is divided into four major sections to reflect the multiplicity of human voices and perspectives section I contemporary circumstances and dominant discourses within which we all attempt to function sections II and III and the generation of new possibilities for constructing relationships together section IV Finally a voice from the heart within a reconceptualist social science agenda for early childhood studies is presented     The Long Forgetting Patrick Evans,2007 The Long Forgetting is the first book length study of New Zealand s post colonial literary culture Beginning with a survey of the wrenching economic social and cultural changes that have occurred since 1970 including Maori protest the anti tour protests of 1981 Rogernomics Ruthanasia the fiscal envelope and the America s Cup win it then moves back to the nineteenth century and the formation of Europeans relationship with Maori Subsequent chapters survey recent critics work in breaking up the myth of male dominated cultural nationalism that occupied much of the mid twentieth century and returning to the years since 1970 show the rise of new writing by women gays and Maori A final chapter treats the Generation X phenomenon Maori writers struggle with official biculturalism and the rise of a distinctive New Zealand based Pasifika writing     Toi Wahine Kathie Irwin,Irihapeti Ramsden,1995 Stories written by Maori women in their own words this beautiful book is a clear celebration of te mana o nga wahine maori It is a rich powerful exposition exploring the realities of Maori women s lives Table of contents He Haka ma te Wahine Mihipeka Edwards Introductions Te Ihi Te Wehi Te Mana o nga Wahine Maori Kathie Irwin Te Timatanga Mihipeka Edwards Aunty Hilda and Granny Roka Tiny as a Piwakawaka Tipuna Wahine Toa Taranaki Aunties Teremoana Pehimana Know the Roots that Hold You Deirdre Nehua Get Real Paparangi Reid Mauri Oho Mauri Ora Hinemona Awatere Ruth Priorities Bub Bridger Broken Peace s Mereana Pitman Whaia e Koe te iti Kahurangi Everdina Fuli Daddy and Me Powhiri Rika Heke Wongie Charlie Baby in Wellington No Karakia Hinewirangi everyone can see love me in the night they pretend it s enough that Maori girl Papatuanuku in her mouth Roma Potiki What Counts as Difference and What Differences Count Gender Race and the Politics of Difference Patricia Johnston and Leonie Pihamia Something Important Patricia Grace Dear Mrs Government Keri Kaa Taku Heitiki Pounamu Piatarihi Yates Coming Right O Tatou Roimata Ka Kite They ve Taken Away Our Hongi Briar Grace Smith Car Waiting Going Back There Briar Grace Smith Own the Past and Create the Future Irihapeti Ramsden Maori Women in Educational Policy 1960 1991 A Discourse Analysis Elizabeth McKinley Arohanui On Kaiti Hill Monica Ratcliffe Seek the Seeds for the Greatest Good of All People Dame Mira Szaszy

Growing Up Māori Witi Ihimaera,1998

A unique insight into childhood stories from early this century through to recent times from the country and increasingly from the city from those whoc had a totally Maori identity to those brought up in an almost completely Pakeha environment In their own worlds the contributers express feelings ranging from happiness to in come cases torment of being Maori in a predominantly European environment

The Oxford History of New Zealand Literature in English Terry Sturm,1998 This is the most comprehensive history of New Zealand literature to have been published It offers chapters on the novel poetry and on the short story which have been the staple of earlier histories and surveys as well as sections on drama non ficiton children s literature popular literature and the history of publishing patronage and literary magazines In this major new edition material is provided on the period from 1986 1996 and a new chapter has been included on literary scholarship criticism and theory
