Healthcare without Borders John M. Kirk,2015-08-25 Cuba has more medical personnel serving abroad over 50 000 in 66 countries than all of the G 7 countries combined and more than the World Health Organization. For the last five decades they have been a leading force in the developing world providing humanitarian aid or cooperation as Cuba's communist government prefers and initiating programs for preventative care and medical training. In Healthcare without Borders John Kirk examines the role of Cuban medical teams in disaster relief, biotechnology joint ventures and in the Latin American School, the largest medical faculty in the world. He looks at their responses to various crises worldwide including the 1960 earthquake in Chile, the Chernobyl disaster in the Ukraine, the earthquake that wracked Haiti in 2010 and the subsequent cholera outbreak and the 2014 Ebola epidemic in West Africa. Kirk issues an informative and enlightening corrective for what he describes as the tendency of the industrialized world's media to ignore or under-report this phenomenon as one of the positive aspects of the Cuban revolutionary process. In the process Kirk explores the philosophical underpinnings of human rights and access to medical care at the core of Cuba's medical internationalism programs and partnerships.

Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard,2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years. Nonetheless, there has been little attempt to catalog this material. This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002. In doing so, it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature. The volume cites more than 2,750 short stories, novels, novel excerpts, and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Cuban American, Dominican American, and Nuyorican women authors. These citations are grouped in five indexes: an author index, title index, author index, anthology index, novel index, and autobiography index. Short annotations are provided for the anthologies, novels, and autobiographies. Thus, the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author, the other works the author has written, and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted, along with information about particular works.
