Effective Strategies for Working with Paraeducators Candice Styer Ph D, Suzanne Fitzgerald M Ed, 2016-02-02. As paraeducators are hired for special education classrooms teachers are often responsible for providing training monitoring their progress managing their schedules addressing challenges and informally evaluating their efforts. This comprehensive guide along with the Paraeducator Handbook purchased separately are designed to help educators navigate this role. With this guide teachers can provide a level of training and support that results in a cohesive positive and effective classroom benefiting everyone administrators teachers paraeducators and most importantly students. I literally went from babysitting to being trained to teach students real life skills like telling time and money use both in the classroom and in the community. The disability awareness training has given me the insight to appreciate each student's unique learning style. Sally Semenock Paraeducator Together Dr Candice Styer and Suzanne Fitzgerald have over 40 years of classroom experience both as paraeducators and as teachers working with paraeducators. They were inspired to write this manual based on their own experiences and the experiences of other teachers and paras with whom they have consulted. The knowledge I gained working as a paraeducator in Suzanne and Candi's special education classroom was so valuable. The positive work atmosphere as well as being a cohesive team allowed us to get the most out of our students and see them flourish. This manual is something that all classrooms should have. Holli Lawrence Paraeducator This manual includes a teacher's copy of the Paraeducator Handbook a companion book available for purchase for each of your paraeducators. Effective Strategies for Working with Paraeducators belongs to Styer Fitzgerald Publishing's line of outstanding educational products including the Styer Fitzgerald Program for Functional Academics.
