

The cover features a solid blue background. At the top, there is a dotted line. Below it, several horizontal green lines of varying lengths are arranged in a staggered fashion. The title 'PARATEXTS' is centered in large, bold, white capital letters. Below the title, the subtitle 'THRESHOLDS OF INTERPRETATION' is centered in smaller, pink capital letters. To the left of the subtitle, a pink bracket connects it to a series of horizontal pink lines. The author's name 'GERARD GENETTE' is at the bottom in bold, white capital letters. The entire design is minimalist and modern.

Paratexts Thresholds Of Interpretation:

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory

Paratexts Gérard Genette, 1997 The British Periodical Text, 1797-1835 Simon Hull, 2008 This collaborative book derives from the 2006 Bristol University Conference on periodicals culture in the Romantic era The essays indicate that the periodical text presented a novel and challenging medium in the Romantic period and enabled a particularly

Enacting Music Through Paratexts Tatiana Rose Daub Koike, 2017 I engage with paratextual mediation of music through the lens set by Gerard Genette in Paratexts Thresholds of Interpretation 1997 I theorize some of the ways different systems of paratexts shape acts of interpreting a musical text through a series of case studies in musical scores CDs and digital music My final case study considers Spotify as exemplary of the changing conditions surrounding the relationship between text and paratext through Internet technology Musical texts in Spotify bear a loosened relationship with their interacting paratexts as compared to scores and CDs whereas a score presentation fixes these paratexts to a musical text by virtue of its materiality the ways paratexts get attached to digital texts are diverse and highly fluid Moreover my case studies highlight the shifting relations of cultural power that lie behind these presentations of music through paratexts Not all interpreters have the same agency to disseminate music through paratexts with published scores a select few hold an inordinate influence to frame interpretation for others in this way Internet technology furnishes a shift in this cultural power as more listeners gain more agency to affix paratexts to music in a way that can shape the listening experiences of others Spotify presents music through paratexts by drawing on listener data thereby democratizing a certain portion of this framing power to listeners Even so interpretation in

Spotify is filtered through the network of technologies and actors representing Spotify's company who perform a gatekeeping function on musical content through paratexts

Art Periodical Culture in Late Imperial Russia (1898-1917) Hanna Chuchvaha, 2015-10-27 Art Periodical Culture in Late Imperial Russia 1898-1917 Print Modernism in Transition offers a detailed exploration of the major Modernist art periodicals in late imperial Russia the World of Art Mir Iskusstva 1899-1904 The Golden Fleece Zolotoe runo 1906-1909 and Apollo Apollon 1909-1917 By exploring the role of art reproduction in the nineteenth century and the emergence of these innovative art journals in the turn of the century Hanna Chuchvaha proves that these Modernist periodicals advanced the Russian graphic arts and reinforced the development of reproduction technologies and the art of printing Offering a detailed examination of the inaugural issues which included editorial positions expressed in words and images Hanna Chuchvaha analyses the periodicals' ideologies and explores journals as art objects appearing in their unique socio-historical context in imperial Russia

Sacred Thresholds: The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity Emilie M. van Opstall, 2018-07-10 Sacred Thresholds The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity offers a far-reaching account of boundaries within pagan and Christian sanctuaries gateways in a precinct outer doors of a temple or church inner doors of a cella The study of these liminal spaces within Late Antiquity itself a key period of transition during the spread of Christianity when cultural paradigms were redefined demands an approach that is both interdisciplinary and diachronic Emilie van Opstall brings together both upcoming and noted scholars of Greek and Latin literature and epigraphy archaeology art history philosophy and religion to discuss the experience of those who crossed from the worldly to the divine both physically and symbolically What did this passage from the profane to the sacred mean to them on a sensory emotive and intellectual level Who was excluded and who was admitted The articles each offer a unique perspective on pagan and Christian sanctuary doors in the Late Antique Mediterranean

Text, Extratext, Metatext and Paratext in Translation Valerie Pellatt, 2014-01-08 This volume brings together research on a variety of paratextual and peritextual elements of translation of German Chinese and Czech source texts The explication seen as necessary to translated texts is a part of this growing field as researchers investigate the influence of writing which purports to help the reader's understanding of a text The articles included here demonstrate the impact of paratextual and peritextual elements on the way a text is produced and received Publishers both consciously and unconsciously may manipulate the presentation of a text to appeal to a certain readership while writers of prefatorial explanatory and critical material base their paratextual interpretation on their own perceptions and political leanings The articles in the volume focus on significant literary texts by writers such as Christa Wolf and Mao Zedong Regional novels of Taiwan modern and traditional poetry and children's stories are not exempt from the power of paratext and some genres such as the literary mystification texts published in the Czech Republic are purposefully designed to mislead the reader The articles in the volume help to dispel the notion that translation and the paratext which surrounds it and of which it is a part are innocent
