

TJ JAGUARS YOUTH WRESTLING

Rules and Scoring for Beginners

Wrestling is a fun sport that teaches kids how to work hard, lose graciously, and have self discipline. Learning the basic rules and scoring will help you and your wrestler understand the game so they can have a lot of fun!

GENERAL MATCH INFORMATION

- A typical youth wrestling match consists of 3 – 1 minute long periods.
- A score will be kept throughout the 3 periods, and the opponent with the highest score (or the opponent that pins the other) will win the match.
- At the beginning of the match, the two opponents will shake hands and the referee will blow a whistle to tell the wrestlers to start and to stop
- At the end, the referee will have both children shake hands. The ref will then raise the winners hand, and tell the child to shake the hands of their opponent's coach

HOW EACH MATCH WILL GO

- One child will wear a red ankle band, and the other will wear a green one
- For the first period, both children will start in neutral position
- The goal is to take down your opponent and score points (see scoring on page 2)

Neutral Position      Referee Position

- At the start of the second period, the referee will flip a red and green coin (corresponds to your ankle band color)
- If your color wins, your coach will decide if the kids will start again in the neutral position, if your child will be on the top or bottom of the referee position, or if they will allow the other team to select (meaning they will select in the third period. This is called deferring)
- The team that lost the coin toss will select the position at the start of the third period.
