

Empowered Parenting

When children have the right amount of agency within the parent-child dynamic, it enables their mental well-being. They will simultaneously see their parents as leaders they can trust, and will learn to trust their own decisions. However, when there are power struggles between a child and a parent, it can cause stress and tension for everyone. Do you give your child too much power over you?

Check all that apply. If you check off more than a couple of the points, your child-parent dynamic may be imbalanced.

☐ I often ignore my child's poor behavior because they will just do what they want regardless of what I say.

☐ My child is given an equal vote in my decision-making process about matters related to the family.

☐ I prefer to be more of a friend to my child than an authority figure.

☐ My child is able to make me change my parenting decisions and choices.

☐ I use bribery to make my child listen to me.

☐ I often find myself on the back foot or justifying my parenting choices to my child.

☐ My child does not ask for my permission before doing something.

☐ I am uncomfortable being in charge.

☐ I struggle to enforce natural consequences for my child.

☐ I find it difficult to know where parent-child boundaries should lie.

Parenting Teens Whos Really Not Getting It:

One Parent's Story, Struggle "Teenagers" What Was I Thinking! Leon Segers Jr.,2012-10-25 Although the title of this book indicates One parents story struggle its actually about the battle between all parents and teens or simply adults and teens in general I say battle but it has actually risen to the potential for what I call generational warfare Basically teenagers have little respect for adults especially parents The protocol is simple and yes most adults do recall progressing strategically in the same way during their own youth Even before were born we make demands Then after weve grown a few years we make many more demands By the age of ten to thirteen we more than expect those demands to unquestionably be met Finally by the last 3 to 5 years of youth while living at home with our parents weve assessed who our biggest enemy is and how we would like to take down who we now see as both an enemy and a dictator Simply put after youve bitten the hand that feeds you for so long that hand begins to appear useless And once that represents uselessness the person behind that outreaching hand also serves no purpose to you So the stage is set Teenagers wont look back with any sense of appreciation and parents who also continued to grow will look back and wonder was it all worth it Many are optimistic while others are in denial But most can only feel one thing What was I thinking
