This book instead will guide parents along their gifted parenting journey exploring what they might worry about and feel. How they can weather and even thrive despite roadblocks to their child's education criticism from others based on stereotypes and their own self doubts. Understanding their thoughts and feelings and distinguishing these emotions from what their child needs is key to making informed parenting decisions. Throughout this book parents are invited to discover more about their deeper emotions and motivations what influences their attitudes and expectations and how certain reactions are elicited in response to the gifted experience. Readers will be prompted to explore questions that should increase self awareness and are offered both practical tools for managing their emotions and guidelines for improving their parenting skills. Dr Post provides the latest research clinical vignettes and insight based on decades of experience as a psychologist.
