Parents Vs. Children Marvin J. Fine, 1979      Working with Parents, Carers and Families in the Early Years Teresa Wilson, 2015-07-24 Parents have a crucial role in supporting children's learning development and well being The act of forming effective partnerships with families and carers is a key feature of the Early Years Foundation Stage Achieving this takes time reflective practice skill and a solid understanding of the barriers that can impede forming effective working relationships with parents This guide offers an informed and comprehensive framework for working with parents drawing on the latest evidence and containing practical advice from practitioners and parents to support sound partnership practice Full of examples and activities for training and resources to support practice across a wide range of settings it focuses on key areas such as Working with parents of different aged children The development of strategies to support the relationship The barriers to partnership working including cultural differences and working with hard to reach families Setting up home and setting visits Creating parent friendly environments Including case studies and questions for reflective practice this book will be ideal for Early Years students on Foundation Degrees Childhood Studies Courses and those training to become Early Years teachers as well as Early Years practitioners and managers responsible for staff training      Doing Relationship-Based Social Work Mary McColgan, Cheryl McMullin, 2017-03-21 Highly practical and research informed this book describes a new model for implementing relationship based principles in social work practice      Proceedings of the Conference on Familial Relations, 1929      A Parent-Partner Status for American Family Law Merle H. Weiner, 2015-09-17 Despite the fact that becoming a parent is a pivotal event the birth or adoption of a child has little significance for parents legal relationship to each other Instead the law relies upon marriage domestic partnerships and contracts to set the parameters of parents legal relationship With over forty percent of American children born to unwed mothers and consistently high rates of divorce this book argues that the law's current approach to regulating parental relationships is outdated A new legal and social structure is needed to guide parents so they act as supportive partners and to deter uncommitted couples from having children This book is the first of its kind to propose a new parent partner status within family law Included are a detailed discussion of the benefits of the status as well as specific recommendations for legal obligations      Lewis's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Andrés Martin, Fred R. Volkmar, Melvin Lewis, 2007 Established for fifteen years as the standard work in the field Melvin Lewis's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry A Comprehensive Textbook is now in its Fourth Edition Under the editorial direction of Andrés Martin and Fred R Volkmar two of Dr Lewis's colleagues at the world renowned Yale Child Study Center this classic text emphasizes the relationship between basic science and clinical research and integrates scientific principles with the realities of drug interactions This edition has been reorganized into a more compact clinically relevant book and completely updated with two thirds new contributing authors The new structure incorporates economics diversity and a heavy focus on evidence based practice Numerous new chapters include genetics research methodology and statistics and the continuum of care and location specific interventions A companion Website provides instant access to the complete fully searchable text     Resources in Education ,2000-04     The Progressive Teacher and Southwestern School Journal ,1917     *S.C.A.A.
