Paris est une fete Ernest Hemingway, 1991      Arts of the Border Debarati Sanyal, 2025-12-02 Arts of the Border investigates the consequences of unfolding catastrophes across the world and the displacement they continue to produce Through recent narratives and media representations of the refugee crisis at Europe's edges it tells a new story about those on the move the technologies unleashed on them at borders the racialized and colonial histories that inform these technologies and the artistry with which migrants and allies bear witness to displacement The book reorients us toward the creativity and movement of migrants themselves their arts of the border as well as toward the political force of the arts that represent them whether in literature documentary film or art installations Sanyal proposes kino aesthetics as a framework for capture and fugitivity at borders From kino to set in motion and aesthetics relating to sensory perception kino aesthetics conveys the force of bodies in motion and the image in its circulation The book examines the simultaneity of capture and escape at thresholds of illegalization from airport detention zones to Calais's jungle and the Euro African border at Ceuta and Melilla What emerges throughout these case studies is a portrayal of border violence in its racial and colonial forms as well as an archive of refusal fugitivity and unbordered imagining

The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely, Susan Hayward, 2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe's various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous community ies produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their context s so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe's film corpus The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies

Looking Beyond Neoliberalism

Martin O'Shaughnessy, 2022-06-17 Looking Beyond Neoliberalism explores how cinema is responding to the economic crisis that sprang to public attention in 2008 and continues to shape our politics and societies. Bringing French and francophone Belgian films into dialogue with carefully selected theories, O'Shaughnessy develops insights and an analytical framework that will become important resources for other scholars of contemporary cinema. This book explores cinema's capacity to register mutations in subjectivity, the material grounds for identity construction and the machinic dimension of neoliberal subjection. It also probes its capacity to imagine alternative economies and identities and an exit from neoliberal labour. By developing fresh insights into political cinema, this book provides an engaged response to neoliberalism in crisis.
