Parisnapoli Express:

Land Deep in Time Weronika Suchacka, Hartmut Lutz, 2023-10-09 This volume brings together a group of most highly acclaimed Canadian writers and distinguished international experts on Canadian literature to discuss what potential Janice Kulyk Keefer's concept of historiographic ethnofiction has for ethnic writing in Canada. The collection builds upon Kulyk Keefer's idea but also moves beyond it by discussing such realms of the concept as its ethics and aesthetics, multiple and multilayered sites, generic intersections and diasporic contexts. Thus focusing on Canadian historiographic ethnofiction, Land Deep in Time is the first study to define and explore a type of writing which maintains a marked presence in Canadian literature but has not yet been recognized as a separately identifiable genre. The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s, the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today, among them Margaret Atwood, Mavis Gallant, Alice Munro, Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it, surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M. Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany. Difference and Community Peter Easingwood, Konrad Gross, Lynette Hunter, 1996 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other. Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile. Difference refers to gender, sexuality, race, nationality or language. Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors. The Canadian-European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances. The topics covered include pioneer women's writing, transcultural women's fiction, canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel, the city poem in Confederate Canada, poetry of the Great War, various ethno-cultural perspectives, Jewish, South Asian, Italian, Native reappropriations, Quebec cinema, literature and the media, and small press publishing. Some of the authors treated: Sandra Birdsell, Nicole Brossard, Jack Hodgins, Henry Kreisel, Robert Kroetsch, Janice Kulyk Keefer, Archibald Lampman, Malcolm Lowry, Lesley Lum, Daphne Marlatt, Susanna Moodie, Bharati Mukherjee, Alice Munro, Frank Paci and

Susan Swan The Ladies' Lending Library Janice Kulyk Keefer,2009-10-06 A deeply thoughtful beautifully written novel Washington Post Book World A portrait of women caught between countries cultures and aspirations a bittersweet tale set in the 1960s of mothers daughters friends and lovers during one unforgettable summer August 1963 the year of the sensational release of Cleopatra starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton showcasing a passion too grand to be contained on the movie screen The women of the Kalyna Beach cottage community part of a group of first generation Ukrainian Canadians gather for gin and gossip trading the current racy bestsellers among themselves as they seek a brief escape from the predictable rhythms of children and chores But dramatic change is coming this summer as innocence falters and the desire for change reaches a boiling point threatening to disrupt the warm sweet heady days and the lives of parents and children family and friends forever

The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik,2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro

Speaking of Writing Ann Clayton,2017-08-24 SPEAKING OF WRITING is a collection of interviews conducted by Ann Clayton with Canadian novelists including Janice Kulyk Keefer Alice Boissonneau Joy Kogawa Aritha van Herk Stephen Henighan Jane Urquhart and Barbara Gowdy
