Modern, 2004 Rachel Whiteread Drawings Allegra Pesenti, Rachel Whiteread, Ann Gallagher, 2010 A comprehensive overview of the artist's work focuses on Burchfield's expressive watercolors and includes drawing from his 1917 sketchbook camouflage designs from his tour in the army and wallpaper designs from the 1920s Carnegie International, 1995

Vija Celmins Ian Alteveer, 2018-12-11 The beautiful catalogue that accompanies the critically acclaimed exhibition currently on view at the Metropolitan Museum Best known for her striking drawings of ocean surfaces begun in 1968 and revisited over many years both in drawings and paintings Vija Celmins b 1938 has been creating exquisitely detailed renderings of natural imagery for more than five decades The oceans were followed by desert floors and night skies all subjects in which vast expansive distances are distilled into luminous meticulous and mesmerizing small scale artworks For Celmins this obsessive redescribing of the world is a way to understand human consciousness in relation to lived experience The first major publication on the artist in twenty years this comprehensive and lavishly illustrated volume explores the full range of Celmins's work produced since the 1960s drawings and paintings as well as sculpture and prints Scholarly essays a narrative chronology and a selection of excerpts from interviews with the artist illuminate her methods and techniques survey her early years in Los Angeles where she was part of a circle that included James Turrell and Ken Price and trace the development of her work after she moved to New York City and befriended figures such as Robert Gober and Richard Serra

Objects and Meaning M. Anna Fariello, Paula Owen, 2005 Throughout the 20th century there were increasing numbers of artists who chose to work within a fine art aesthetic i.e. expressive communicative innovative unique while simultaneously embracing qualities associated with craft production i.e. intimacy materiality labor ritual At the periphery of their world loomed issues of status gender community and economics This fluid situation made for an exciting mix of ideas that helped perpetuate an ongoing debate within an art world no longer as monothematic as it appeared in print Objects and Meaning expands upon a national conversation questioning how various academic disciplines and cultural institutions approach and assign meaning to artist made objects in postmodern North America Although most of the discourse since the mid 20th century revolved around the split between art and craft the contributors to this collection of essays take a broader view examining the historical cultural and theoretical perspectives that defined the parameters of that conversation Their focus is on issues concerning works that appeared to cross over from mainstream art to an amorphous and pluralistic aesthetic milieu that has yet to be defined The essays collected for this volume loosely organized into three groupings_Historical Contexts Cultural Systems and Theoretical Frames_contribute to a deeper understanding of the meaning of objects and how that meaning comes to be defined Although the style of writing in this collection ranges from passionate conviction to cool observation with points of view from different professional backgrounds each essay reflects original ideas introduced into the cultural dialogue during this period Rachel Whiteread Rachel Whiteread, Christiane Schneider, 2002 Exhibition at Haunch of Venison Yard 1 November to 21 December 2002 Contemporary Artists: L-Z Sara Pendergast, Tom Pendergast, 2002 Arranged alphabetically from Magdalena Abakanowicz to Tadaaki Kuwayama this volume provides a biography of the artist a selected list of exhibitions a list of public collections that include work by the artist and more

High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass, 2020-05-05 This searing book has become the authoritative account of the new British art of the 1990s its legacy in the 21st century and what it tells us about the fate of high art in contemporary society High Art Lite provides a sustained analysis of the phenomenal success of YBA young British artists obsessed with commerce mass media and the cult of personality Damien Hirst Tracey Emin Jake and Dinos Chapman Marcus Harvey Sarah Lucas among others In this fully revised and expanded edition Julian Stallabrass explores how YBA lost its critical immunity in the new millennium and looks at the ways in which figures such as Hirst Emin Wearing and Landy have altered their work in recent years

Having Been Said Lawrence Weiner, 2004 Lawrence Weiner's art uses language in reference to materials Language itself is a material and at the same time a means of presentation of his work Weiner evolved this approach in the context of the Conceptual art of the late 60s yet he does not see his own work as conceptual The space he works within is the entire cultural context and his works are associated with various different media and forms of presentation books posters videos films records drawings multiples installations indoors and outdoors and more Since his earliest days as a professional artist Weiner has given written and verbal expression to questions concerning his work and its context These utterances statements interviews lectures and conference contributions have been collected together in this publication for the first time and ordered chronologically Taken as a whole they afford an insight both into a complex individual biography and into the wider development of art and culture and the challenge that this entails Jeff Koons Scott Rothkopf, 2014-07-08 With over 200 illustrations of iconic works as well as preparatory studies and historic photographs this book offers fresh insight into Koons's polarizing and influential career Gabriel Orozco Ann Temkin, 2009 From the developer of

Chuck Close Robert Storr, Chuck Close, Kirk Varnedoe, Deborah Wye, 1998 For the past 30 years American artist Chuck Close b 1940 has concentrated on essentially one subject the human face This volume the most comprehensive assessment of Close's work yet published includes portraits of Robert Rauschenberg Roy Lichtenstein Alex Katz Lucas Samaras and others It accompanies a mid career retrospective opening at The Museum of Modern Art New York in February 1998 178 illustrations 113 in color
