Parole e immagini futuriste Silvia Barisione,Matteo Fochessati, Gianni Franzone,2001     Italian Futurism and the Poetry of Materiality Dalila Colucci,2024-06-17 This monograph offers the first ever full length analysis of the most irreverent book of Italian Futurism L anguria lirica printed in 1934 on tin metal sheets with design and poetic text by Tullio d Albisola and illustrations by Bruno Munari This study which features the unabridged reproduction of the pages of the tin book accompanied by the first English translation of the poem aims to disentangle the complex relationship between text and image in this total artwork It shows how the endless series of material transformations at its core of woman into food of love into desecrating religion of man into machine of poetry into matter fostered a radical change in poetry writing thus breaking away from a stagnant lyrical past

The Fishing Net and the Spider Web Claudio Fogu,2020-11-23 This book explores the role of Mediterranean imaginaries in one of the preeminent tropes of Italian history the formation or making of Italians While previous scholarship on the construction of Italian identity has often focused too narrowly on the territorial notion of the nation state and over identified Italy with its capital Rome this book highlights the importance of the Mediterranean Sea to the development of Italian collective imaginaries From this perspective this book re interprets key historical processes and actors in the history of modern Italy and thereby challenges mainstream interpretations of Italian collective identity as weak or incomplete Ultimately it argues that Mediterranean imaginaries acted as counterweights to the solidification of a national Italian identity and still constitute alternative but equally viable modes of collective belonging Futurismo ,2004 Futurism Paola
