bombarded with words and images We are not conscious of most because our subconscious thinking filters them out Yet too often the church relies almost exclusively on words and images to tell the most important story of all the good news of Jesus Christ In His book Interactive Christianity John W Mowat takes us back to the methods and teachings of Jesus Christ Himself all of which are relational thus interactive John examines three different areas of interaction He believes that it is only when all 3 are healthy that larger numbers of individuals and groups of people can come to ongoing growing relationships with God Any one of these relationships that are missing or out of focus will tend to result in either no birth stillbirth or choked birth Jesus described this in the parable of the seed and soils John examines first our interaction with Jesus Christ This interaction he believes is foundational to the other two Many will tend to skip over this believing they have arrived however this is a mistake Second John examines our interaction with unbelievers Some readers want to go to this section and skip the rest While there is very critical information in this section readers especial pastors and teachers need to get the whole picture Finally John examines the believer s interaction with other believers as we relate together to each other and to the unbelieving world around us This is a complicated relationship Learning to love is the greatest ongoing challenge of the Church yet it is critical to the difference between making decisions and making disciples Pentecostalism in Context Wonsuk Ma,Robert P. Menzies,2008-01-04 Pentecostalism in Context is a collection of essays produced by Pentecostal scholars from North America Europe and Asia The essays produced in their various geographical and cultural contexts reflect the rich diversity that characterizes the Pentecostal movement Biblical theological and missiological issues relevant to the Pentecostal movement are treated The book thus represents a valuable resource for those seeking to understand better the key intellectual currents within this dynamic and influential movement The essays are offered in honor of William Menzies a leading Pentecostal scholar and Chancellor of Asia Pacific Theological Seminary Baguio City Philippines Proceedings of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and Its Departments Church of the Nazarene.
