Managing High Technology And Innovation:

Managing High Technology and Innovation Nino S. Levy, 1998 This book deals with the critical issues in the management of high technology enterprises. It focuses on management decisions in each of the major activities typical in such companies: research and development, manufacturing, marketing and product support. The interplay and ongoing conflicts between these activities are analyzed and methodology to ensure the smooth flow of products and services in the firm are described. Special attention is devoted to the global high technology market and to factors affecting success in international competitions and joint ventures. In its effort to offer theories that have been found effective in the field, the subject of mergers and acquisitions in the high technology industry presented here reflects the strategy and experience of Bernard Schwartz, former CEO of Loral and a world recognized authority in high technology acquisitions. Through interviews and conversations with leading executives of U.S., European, Israeli and Asian high technology companies, the author presents real cases which illustrate the application of the theory and show proven approaches that bring noteworthy results. The Management of Innovation in High-technology Small Firms Raymond P. Oakey, Roy Rothwell, Sarah Cooper, 1988

Managing High Technology and Innovation Pearson Custom Publishing, 1999-09-01 Managing Technology and Innovation Robert Verburg, J. Roland Ortt, Willemijn M. Dicke, 2006-06-19 Modern technology and innovation are vital to the success of all companies, be they hi tech firms or companies seemingly unaffected by technology and innovation, whether established firms or business start ups. This book focuses on understanding technology as a corporate resource, covering product development, design of systems and the managerial aspects of new and high technology. Topics investigated include the internal organization of high technology firms, the management of technology in society, managing innovation dilemmas and strategies. The wide ranging experience of the teachers and experts contributing to this book has resulted in an integrated multi disciplinary textbook that provides an introductory overview to managing technology and innovation in the twenty first century. This text is essential reading for students of business and engineering concerned with technology and innovation management.

Marketing of High-technology Products and Innovations Jakki J. Mohr, Sanjit Sengupta, Stanley F. Slater, 2010 This title provides a thorough overview of the issues high tech marketers must address and provides a balance between conceptual discussions and examples, small and big business products and services and consumer and business to business marketing contexts.

Managing High Technology Brian Wayne Mar, William T. Newell, Börje Osvald, Saxberg, 1985 Strategic Management of Technology and Innovation Robert A. Burgelman, Modesto A. Maidique, Steven C. Wheelwright, 2001 This text has been written for a course in technology and innovation. It covers contemporary research by using a combination of text readings and cases. Based on reviewer response to a survey, the authors have updated many of the cases that instructors found outdated or lacking. Classic cases such as Claire McCloud have been kept while newer cases such as Intel Corporation in 1999 have been added. There is also a strong set of
