Squires,Wayne L. Bryden,2019 This book brings together and discusses information relating to animal production systems in different parts of the world Throughout this book there are examples of systems comprised of a collection of interdependent and interactive elements that act together to accomplish a desired outcome As indicated in the Preface editors sought to give a broad description of existing systems of livestock production in different parts of the world They discuss some of their important components and try to identify why and how these components have interacted with the systems being described By editorial concept and by cross referencing between chapters this book should serve as a synthesis of several key issues Along with the extensive bibliography some in languages other than English here and in each other chapters we present an approach to global livestock production that is up to date and comprehensive The editors have commissioned writers from Asia Africa Australia the Americas and Europe The information they present helps our understanding of the complexity of the issues faced in the rapidly changing world in which we all live What to do about burgeoning populations rising living standards shrinking areas of agricultural and pastoral lands dilemmas about the morality of eating meat competition for arable lands to grow food crops for humans or to provide fodder and grain for livestock have not yet been resolved The books purpose is to provide the reader with a synoptic overview of the role of livestock in the economy and culture of peoples from every continent except Antarctica This book draws together many aspects related to livestock industries around the world beginning with an overview of the major production systems Different geographic zones are associated with certain production systems These are explained and a more in depth examination including case studies of each is presented Livestock production is the worlds largest user of land either directly through grazing or indirectly through consumption of fodder and feed grains Globally livestock production currently accounts for some 36 percent of the gross value of agricultural production In the developed countries this share amounts to half of total production and in developing countries for almost one third Worldwide animal production from livestock meat dairy products eggs fiber and hides and skins is the basis of livelihoods of billions of people The management care and welfare of livestock is called animal husbandry Animal husbandry as a term covers matters relating to livestock production and management physiology of animals reproduction preservation and protection from disease nutrition and feeding housing welfare and behaviour The predominant production systems in the world range from extensive pastoral systems to intensive landless systems The classification is justified by its usefulness in identifying livestock development possibilities Systems at different stages on the development path face widely differing constraints on their further improvement This book is particularly valuable in this context The book has 17 chapters in five parts The authors are drawn from 12 countries many from the developing world They are people with in depth knowledge of the local situation and provide insights into the role function and interdependence of people and their livestock The book will be an invaluable addition to the already comprehensive technical literature on the physiology behaviour and genetics of both ruminant and non ruminant livestock including poultry rabbits and even more exotic mini livestock species that are part of the food chain Readership will include livestock specialists who wish to learn more about the global situation personnel from the donor community the UN agencies NGOs geographers and the curious lay persons

The Top Books of the Year Managing Livestock Production The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Managing Livestock Production : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
