Édouard Manet is one of the world's best known artists but he almost wasn't an artist at all. His father tried to persuade him to practice law or join the navy but Manet wanted to paint. His depictions of modern life such as caf scenes, people going to the opera and watching horse races bridged the gap between realism and Impressionism. Readers follow Manet's career from his early life in Paris to the height of his fame. As they read, they learn about different artistic movements and techniques and other important artists of the period. Manet's most famous works are presented to readers along with informative sidebars.

The ever-expanding interpretation of Impressionism and its legacy within the changing world of twentieth century art and art criticism is examined through the writings of artists such as Léger, Kandinsky, Masson, Matisse, Bataille, Klee and Hofmann as well as recent critics, philosophers and art historians. Accompanying the texts are 235 color plates of Impressionist and Post Impressionist masterpieces and 242 black and white reproductions of historical photographs, original documents, contemporary cartoons, prints and drawings.
