Manger In The Mountains:

Manger in the Mountains James Arne Nestingen, 1999 Told by James Arne Nestingen theologian and storyteller these 25 devotions invite us to meet the many people who gather with us at the manger Reflecting on a recent trip to the Andes Pastor Nestingen will help you and your family meet people in a part of the world where faith compassion and advocacy are making a difference It s a great way to make your way to the manger

Disrupting Territories Jörg Gertel, Richard Rottenburg, Sandra Calkins, 2014 Examines the commodification of land rights and the effect of international licences for resource extraction on the pastoral communities of Sudan Nowhere has a range of case studies of Sudan been brought together in a single volume Given the concern with the growing number and complexity of conflicts in Sudan and South Sudan there is a significant readership in academic circles and from those involved in humanitarian organisations of all kinds Professor Peter Woodward University of Reading A timely contribution to an important set of debates tackles questions emerging from discussions about modernisation urbanisation and globalisation from an explicitly local angle with regards to Sudan Dr Harry Verhoeven University of Oxford Sudan experiences one of the most severe fissures between society and territory in Africa Not only were its international borders redrawn when South Sudan separated in 2011 but conflicts continue to erupt over access to land territorial claims are challenged by local and international actors borders are contested contracts governing the privatization of resources are contentious and the legal entitlements to agricultural land are disputed Under these new dynamics of land grabbing and resource extraction fundamental relationships between people and land are being disrupted while land has become a global commodity for millions it still serves as a crucial reference for identity formation and constitutes their most important source of livelihood This book seeks to disentangle the emerging relationships between people and land in Sudan The first part focuses on the spatial impact of resource extracting economies foreign agricultural land acquisitions Chinese investments in oil production and competition between artisanal and industrial gold mining Detailed ethnographic case studies in the second part from Darfur South Kordofan Red Sea State Kassala Blue Nile and Khartoum State show how rural people experience their land vis vis the latest wave of privatization and commercialization of land rights J rg Gertel is Professor of Economic Geography at Leipzig University Richard Rottenburg is Chair of Anthropology at the University of Halle Sandra Calkins is a Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle

Economic Spaces of Pastoral Production and Commodity Systems Richard Le Heron, 2016-04-29 Pastoralism as a land use system is under recognized in terms of its contribution to food provision livelihoods as well as to human security This book is the first attempt to explore the dynamics of economic spaces of pastoral production and commodity systems for explicit South and North positionings It develops and applies a new approach in combining agri food market and commodity chain perspectives with livelihood approaches This enables new understandings of re aligning exchange relations between the global south and the global north The case studies presented open up new empirical insights in largely under researched areas such as Afghanistan Chad Tibet and Siberia and very recent changes in industrialized economies with major pastoral sectors The book reveals new evidence and theoretical insights about significant changes in established producer consumer relations in agriculture and food After the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in Sudan Elke Grawert,2010 After a long process of peace negotiations the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA was signed on 9 January 2005 between the Government of Sudan GOS and the Sudan People s Liberation Movement Army SPLM A The CPA raised initial hopes that it would be the foundation block for lasting peace in Sudan This book compiles scholarly analyses of the implementation of the power sharing agreement of the CPA of ongoing conflicts with particular respect to land issues of the challenges of the reintegration of internally displaced people and refugees and of the repercussions of the CPA in other regions of Sudan as well as in neighbouring countries Back cover That Goodly Mountain & Lebanon Thomas Jenner,1873
