Jack Robertson and Syd Brown: More Than Just The Warm-Up Act Chris Overson, 2013-05-01 North London cricket followers turned to their morning newspapers for eleven summers in 1939 and from 1946 to 1955 to see how Robertson J D and Brown S M had fared as the Middlesex opening batsmen They were not often disappointed The pair opened the batting 366 times and their partnerships put on 14 116 runs reaching 100 runs or more on 35 occasions As memories of their endeavours fade cricket enthusiasts nowadays have perhaps typecast them as the warm up act to the prodigious talents of Bill Edrich and Denis Compton But they were more than that Even that curmudgeonly old critic E M Wellings thought Jack a beautifully fluent stroke maker and Syd a splendid county batsman He thought selectors looked too hard for flaws in Jack s top class batting technique thus restricting him to 11 test matches and he reckoned Syd to be among the finest fielders in the deep Using material from a wide range of sources Chris Overson here writes on their early influences their almost simultaneous start at Lord s in 1934 their inevitable cricketing ups and downs often in those days before crowds of 10 000 or more and their lives after they had left the field of play Andrew Strauss: Coming into Play - My Life in Test Cricket Andrew Strauss, 2012-03-01 On May 21 2004 playing against New Zealand Andrew Strauss wrote his name into the record books when he became only the fourth batsman to score a century at Lord s on his Test debut He made 112 in the first innings and was only denied a historical second hundred when he was run out on 83 by Nasser Hussain England went on to beat New Zealand 3 0 before returning to headquarters to welcome the West Indies Strauss scoring 137 as the hosts laid the foundations for another whitewash He then raised the bar again when touring the country of his birth making three centuries in England s first win in South Africa in 40 years This sensational start to his international career has ensured that he has been celebrated as a world class opening batsman and was voted Wisden s Cricketer of the Year 2005 In THE STORY SO FAR Andrew Strauss looks back on his early cricketing days and astounding first year in Test cricket and gives the inside story on what it is like to be part of an incredible England side fighting to overtake Australia as the number one cricketing nation THE STORY SO FAR also includes his personal story of how England beat Australia in the 2005 Ashes Series in which he played a major part Disappearing World Scyld Berry, 2023-04-10 Award winning cricket writer Scyld Berry brings us a heartfelt celebration of what county cricket has been for more than a hundred years an integral part of English life Drawing on 60 years experience of watching county cricket the author provides an in depth profile of each of the 18 first class counties delving into the past to explore how the game took off in no small part thanks to the legendary W G Grace With change and possible existential threat looming in the shape of The Hundred franchise and the proliferation of T20 tournaments around the world the England and Wales Cricket Board is looking to cut the County Championship to just ten games per season There s never been a more pertinent time to unpick the workings of this centuries old institution and examine why its survival is so important Frank and George Mann: Brewing, Batting and Captaincy Brian Rendell, 2015-11-01 Father and Son Middlesex and England Beer and Skittles Fame and Fortune Between them Frank and George Mann achieved in varying measure all these word pairs in the first half of the twentieth century They both captained Middlesex to the County Championship and led successful England sides on tours to South Africa Until the takeover frenzy of the 1970s the family's highly successful brewery business based in East London was a leading player in the social fabric of southern England Mann's Brown Ale can still be found on supermarket shelves today Both served in Britain's armed forces outside its shores Both filled middle order batting positions for county and country they took catches often painfully at mid off and every so often they sent down a few deliveries to help bring a match to its conclusion Frank's mighty hitting emptied beer tents sometimes to the detriment of sales of his brewery's products George's management skills were brought to bear on the administration of English cricket Using material from a wide range of sources Brian Rendell here brings together a story far larger than the 20 000 first class runs they scored between them

A Game Divided: Triumphs and troubles in Yorkshire cricket in the 1920s Jeremy Lonsdale,2020-11-01 Between 1922 and 1925 Yorkshire County Cricket Club won the County Championship four years in a row making it one of the most successful sides ever in the history of the English county game A line up which included Wilfred Rhodes Percy Holmes Herbert Sutcliffe Roy Kilner George Macaulay and Maurice Leyland dominated English cricket for much of the decade taking a highly professional approach to the game Unsurprisingly they were heroes to many but despite this success the side was at times unpopular and the subject of trenchant criticism A Game Divided takes as its starting point the events during the match between Yorkshire and Middlesex at Sheffield in July 1924 which provoked a falling out between the counties These events and how they were portrayed shine a light on many of the divisions in English cricket of the time between north and south amateur and professional employer and employee and between different perspectives on sportsmanship and the style in which the game should be played The book looks at the triumphs and troubles that shaped Yorkshire cricket in the decade and asks just how great was this side of match winners
