Original    The Publishers Weekly ,1971    Books in Print ,1981    Midnight Magic Genevieve Goldstring, The ancient bell tower of Moonhaven chimed midnight as Lyralei Nightwhisper pressed her palm against the cold stone wall of the Celestial Academy Magic thrummed beneath her fingertips but it felt wrong somehow like a song played in the wrong key She closed her violet eyes and tried to center herself drawing upon the lunar energy that supposedly flowed through her bloodline like silver rivers Nothing Again Still struggling with the midnight meditation I see came a warm voice from behind her Lyralei spun around her midnight blue robes swirling about her ankles Standing in the moonlit courtyard was Thorne Shadowmere the academy s most promising student and the one person who seemed immune to her family s legendary magical prowess His dark hair caught the starlight and his emerald eyes held a mixture of concern and something else she couldn t quite identify I wasn t struggling she lied lifting her chin with practiced defiance I was simply communing with the night spirits Thorne stepped closer and she caught the scent of pine and morning mist that always seemed to surround him

The night spirits must be particularly chatty tonight then You ve been out here for three hours Heat crept up her neck Had he been watching her all this time Perhaps you should focus on your own studies instead of spying on mine Shadowmere Hard to focus when the most powerful witch in our year is having what appears to be an argument with a stone wall His lips quirked into a half smile that made her stomach flutter in a most inconvenient way
