Midt I En Jazztid:

Midt i en Jazztid. (Tredie Udgave.). Knud SØNDERBY, 1948 Et opmærksomt blik Per Øhrgaard, 2004 Text in Danish Per Øhrgaard's ability to look attentively upon the borders of the domestic area the borders of our own language our own culture our profession and institution all in all our own world has in the course of the years been a source of inspiration to many people In this festschrift German and Danish humanists turn their attention to some of these borders to celebrate Per Øhrgaard on the occasion of his 60th birthday the 6th February 2004 The articles cover a wide field from translation to music from Goethe to Grass from Danish fiction to German history and from language to education The festschrift thus reflects the comprehensiveness and the many facets in Per Øhrgaard's own work A History of Danish Literature Sven Hakon Rossel, 1992-01-01 Volume 1 Becoming Modern Birgitte Søland, 2021-05-11 In the decade following World War I nineteenth century womanhood came under attack not only from feminists but also from innumerable ordinary young women determined to create modern lives for themselves These young women cut their hair wore short skirts worked for wages sought entertainment outside the home and developed new attitudes toward domesticity sexuality and their bodies Historians have generally located the origins of this shift in women's lives in the upheavals of World War I Birgitte Søland's exquisite social and cultural history suggests however that they are to be found not in the war itself but in much broader social and economic changes Søland's engrossing chronicle draws on a rich variety of sources including popular media and medical works as well as archival records and oral histories to examine how notions of femininity and womanhood were reshaped in Denmark a small largely agrarian country that remained neutral during the war It explores changes in the female body and personality the forays of young women into the public sphere the redefinition of female respectability and new understandings of married life as evidenced in both cultural discourses and social practices Though specific in its focus the book raises broad comparative questions as it challenges common assumptions about the social and sexual upheavals that characterized the Western world in the postwar decade In a remarkably engaging fashion it shows why the end of World War I did not lead to the return of normal life in the 1920s Locomotion in Literature Martin Zerlang, 2025-07-01 The invention of the locomotive changed landscapes cityscapes social relations sensibilities prophesied by Hans Christian Andersen it also made huge impact on literature on genres themes style This book is about this commotion this literary locomotion as it has been represented in Danish literature The book explores the movements between text and context and the interplay between literature and social history Through the prism of the railway the book provides an overview of Danish literary history from writers such as Søren Kierkegaard Georg Brandes Henrik Pontoppidan Johannes V. Jensen Tove Ditlevsen Peter Høeg The locomotive of history is a well known metaphor but a historical reading of these writers also show the impact of history on this metaphor from something extraordinary to something more ordinary Hans Christian Andersen wrote about meeting God face to face on the railway The experience of the modern commuter is closer to what Georges Perec calls the infraordinary As reflected in the work of Peter Heg however the railway also figures in the intense contemporary debates on decolonizing The book draws on theoretical insights expressed in concepts such as chronotope character and literary speed This book will be of interest to students and scholars in literature studies history transport and mobility studies human geography and urban studies The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Twentieth-century Danish Writers Marianne Stecher-Hansen, 1999 Essays on Danish writers of the twentieth century during the democratization of the literary institution Covers various trends such as naturalism realism symbolism and Romanticism social orientation and psychological introspection Discusses a new generation of woman writers who entered the literary scene during this period as well as the impact of Cultural Radicalism the movement of the intellectual Left The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964 Scandinavian Bookmaking in the Twentieth Century Erik Dal, 1968 Danske filmskuespillere, 2003 The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 Gender and the Social Order Birgitte Soland, 1993 The American-Scandinavian Review Henry Goddard Leach, 1970 Contemporary Danish Literature Sven Møller Kristensen, 1956 Scandinavica Elias Bredsdorff, 1973 The to Z of Scandinavian Literature and Theater Jan Sjøvik, 2009-07-24 The literature of Scandinavia is amazingly rich and varied consisting of the works produced by the countries of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland and stretching from the ancient Norse Sagas to the present day While much of it is unknown outside of the region some has gained worldwide popularity including the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen the stories of Isak Dinesen and the plays of Henrik Ibsen and August Strindberg While including the area's most famous works The A to Z of Scandinavian Literature and Theater also provides information on lesser known authors and currents trends literary circles and journals and historical background This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries which together make this reference the most comprehensive and up to date work of its kind related to Scandinavian literature and theater available anywhere Danish Novels of the Nineteen-twenties Rudolf Jay Jensen, 1978 National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Det første de skrev Orla Lundbo, 1960
