Mighty Stories Dangerous Rituals Weaving Together The Human And The Divine:

Mighty Stories, Dangerous Rituals Herbert Anderson,Edward Foley,2019-02-01 Shaping our journey into the Divine This moving and enlightening book presents us with a compelling vision of what can happen when we take the opportunity to connect stories and rituals a vision of individuals and communities transformed through a deeper sense of connection to our loved ones our communities and God Herbert Anderson and Edward Foley reveal how when stories and rituals work together they have the potential to be both mighty and dangerous mighty in their ability to lift us up and help us make these connections beyond ourselves and dangerous in challenging us to learn to live with complexity and contradiction They show how much more meaningful a baptism wedding or funeral can be when liturgy is made to include and recognize the personal stories of those involved Suddenly these familiar life cycle rituals are infused with new life as participants become connected in a narrative web linking past and present human and divine Newly created rituals can also help us connect our stories to the divine story giving meaning to what we experience and bringing us closer to God Ministers worship leaders and pastoral caregivers can use this approach to storytelling and ritual to find ways to bring together worship and pastoral care

Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice Mary Clark Moschella,2023-02-28 Ethnography is a way to tap the deep undercurrents in a community through a process of gathering analyzing and sharing data Fully revised and updated for this second edition Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice has quickly become the go to textbook for those in or training for ministry who want to discover how they can use ethnography to help them hear the stories of those to whom they minister Setting forth the case for ethnography s ability to galvanize aspirations and heal communal hurt this book presents the helpful pastoral practice of ethnography in a clear step by step manner and includes many compelling case studies of transformational leadership Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice invites us to open our eyes ears and hearts to those in our congregations

Suffering in Worship Armand Léon van Ommen,2016-11-25 How does the universal experience of suffering relate to the experience of worship Questioning how Anglican liturgy welcomes people who are suffering Suffering in Worship uniquely applies a narrative ritual model for the analysis of both the liturgical text and worship services themselves In this book van Ommen draws on interviews with participants in worship as well as clergy Highlighting several elements in the liturgy which address suffering including the Eucharist songs sermons and prayers of intercession he shows the significance of a warm and safe liturgical community as a necessary context for suffering people to find consolation This book also uses the concept of remembrance to plead for liturgy that attends to the suffering of both God and people As such it will be of interest to scholars of pastoral theology as well as clergy

The Bible in Pastoral Practice Paul H. Ballard,Stephen R. Holmes,2006 A New York Review Books Original Whether you call her a coldhearted grifter or the soul of modern capitalism there s no question that Aim e is a killer and a more than professional one Now she s set her eyes on a backwater burg where while posing as an innocent albeit drop dead gorgeous newcomer to town she means to sniff out old grudges and engineer new opportunities deftly playing different people and different interests against each other the better as always to make a killing But then something snaps the master manipulator falls prey to a pure and wayward passion Aim e has become the avenging angel of her own nihilism exacting the destruction of a whole society of destroyers An unholy original Jean Patrick Manchette transformed the modern detective novel into a weapon of gleeful satire and anarchic fun InFatalehe mixes equal measures of farce mayhem and madness to prepare a rare literary cocktail that packs a devastating punch Marking Short Lives Ewan R. Kelly, Ewan Kelly, 2007 This book explores theologically the practice of hospital chaplains seeking to meet the spiritual needs of parents bereaved by baby death in utero The lived experience of bereaved parents gathered through a series of in depth interviews informs such an exploration Parents describe the trauma of late miscarriage and stillbirth as still being shrouded by silence myth and misunderstanding in contemporary society Up to date theoretical understandings of grief are also re examined in light of parents stories of living with baby death This book offers suggestions as to how the actual spiritual needs of parents may be met and their grief sensitively facilitated through the sharing of rituals co constructed by parents and chaplain which seek to have theological integrity yet be relevant in our postmodern age In our prevalent culture of caring where increasingly ongoing professional and personal development are regarded as normative recommendations are made which may aid reflection on current or shape future practice for chaplains pastors students and various healthcare professionals

Seeing Children, Seeing God Pamela D. Couture, 2000 In Seeing Children Seeing God Pamela Couture explores the actual and potential relation of the church and the theological school to economically and socially relationally poor children She argues that the solution to the problem of child poverty requires the shared responsibility of individuals families neighborhoods congregations governments businesses and international organizations because children develop within these multiple systems With their unique access to these multiple systems churches and theological schools are in a wonderful position to transform the social ecology within which children develop and to assist in children's flourishing Concretely what would it mean for the caring ministries of the church and those who teach and learn about them in seminary to make the issue of children and poverty central to what we do How would this change the way we live Pamela Couture argues from a Wesleyan perspective that caring for poor children is a means of grace a grace that deepens our experience as the adopted children of God She draws explicitly on recent writings that have updated the Wesleyan theological tradition Seeing Children Seeing God will be of particular interest to everyone who is concerned about children and poverty especially from a Wesleyan perspective Key Features Brief and accessible Offers a constructive theologically sound response to the problem of children and poverty Recognizes and shares responsibility for solutions across society but especially with the church and the seminary Key Benefits Readers will understand the dynamics and extent of the problem of children living in poverty today Readers will understand ways in which theology has undergirded efforts to deal with this problem in the past Readers will understand and identify with the specifically Christian imperative to respond to
