The linkages between migration, agriculture, food security and rural development Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, International Fund for Agricultural Development, International Organization for Migration, World Food Programme, 2018 Migration has contributed to the society we live in today and as such it is part of our shared history. Both the causes and the consequences are multifaceted and complicated. While many people leave their homes as a result of conflict or poverty others move under conditions of peace political stability and development. A large share of international migrants originated from rural areas. This is an important part of the structural transformation of an economy and is an important part of the structural transformation of an economy. Examining the complex interlinkages of migration with agriculture. This report examines the existing literature and provides evidence from both developed and developing countries focusing on why people from rural areas decide to migrate. It explores the drivers of migration both international and internal and aims to deepen our understanding of the interlinkages with agriculture food security and rural development. This report assesses the impact of migration on countries of origin and destination focusing on rural areas and the agricultural sector. It discusses how agricultural and social policies can address challenges and capitalize on opportunities created by migration trends.

Migration, Agriculture and Rural Development Michele Nori, Domenica Farinella, 2020-05-26 This open access short reader looks into the dynamics which have reshaped rural development and human landscapes in European agriculture and the role of immigrant people. Within this framework it analyses contemporary rural migrations and the emergence of immigrants in relation to the incorporation of agrarian systems into global markets the European agricultural governance CAP and the struggle of local territories as differentiated practices in constant stress between innovation and resilience. It specifically explores the case of immigrant shepherds to describe the reconfiguration of agriculture systems and rural landscapes in Europe following intense immigration and the related provision of skilled labour at a relatively low cost. Being written in a very accessible way this reader is an interesting read to students researchers academics policy makers and practitioners
