The Migration of Symbols comte Eugène Goblet d'Alviella, 1894 The Migration of Symbols Eugène Cte Goblet d'Alviella, 1956 The Migration of Symbols Goblet D'Alviella (Count.), 1894 The Migration of Symbols Eugene Goblet d'Alviella, 1956 The Migration of Symbols Goblet D'Alviella, 2014-04 A study of the migration and mutation of symbols by a late 19th century Belgian lawyer and Masonic scholar Count Goblet d Alviella b 1846 d 1925 Originally published in 1891 in French this book covers a huge web of interchangeable symbols which are found over a wide range of cultures through the Near East India Europe and further abroad notably in Mesoamerica He attempts to explain the widespread use of symbols such as the Swastika the Tree of Life the Winged Globe the Trident and the Caduceus Despite the title d Alviella does not adhere to one theory instead he has a whole toolkit including diffusion mutation independent origins and appropriation as well as psychological historical and sociological explanations He demonstrates that the same symbol can have different interpretations in different cultures and at different times Such is the case with the swastika which today is obviously associated with absolute evil but which has been used historically as a symbol of the Sun s yearly path and regarded as a good luck symbol even to this day in the far East With over 150 line illustrations this book is an invaluable source book for symbologists and makes fascinating reading for readers interested in the development of religion The migration of symbols Eugène F.
