Migration and Education in a Multicultural World U. Kelly,2009-02-16 Arising from the legacies of the twentieth century unprecedented worldwide migration unrelenting global conflict and warring unchecked materialist consumption and unconscionable environmental degradation are important questions about the toll of loss such changes exact individually and collectively As large scale and ubiquitous as these changes are their deep specificity re inscribes the importance of place as a critical construct Attending to such specificity emphasizes the interconnections between contexts and broader movements and remains a prudent route to articulating critical interconnections among places and peoples in complex times This book of essays turns to such specificity as a means to examine the inflections of migration on identity displacement disorientation loss and difference as sites of both regression and possibility Fusing autobiography and cultural analysis it provides a framework for a critical education attuned to such concerns

African American Autobiographers Emmanuel S. Nelson,2002-03-30 There is growing popular and scholarly interest in autobiography along with increasing regard for the achievements of African American writers The first reference of its kind this volume chronicles the autobiographical tradition in African American literature. Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 66 African American authors who present autobiographical material in their works. The volume profiles major figures such as Frederick Douglass, Zora Neale Hurston, Richard Wright, Maya Angelou, James Baldwin, and Malcolm X, along with many lesser known autobiographers who deserve greater attention. While some are known primarily for their literary accomplishments, others have gained acclaim for their diverse contributions to society. The entries are written by expert contributors and provide authoritative information about their subjects. Each begins with a concise biography which summarizes the life and achievements of the autobiographer. This is followed by a discussion of major autobiographical works and themes, along with an overview of the autobiographer's critical reception. The entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the volume. Together the entries provide a detailed portrait of the African American autobiographical tradition from the 18th century to the present.

CLA Journal College Language Association (U.S.), 1982    Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994 Rebecca Stuhr, 1997 This bibliography provides extensive descriptive annotations of nearly 500 autobiographies published by Americans of color during the years 1980 and 1994. The authors of these narratives range from established writers such as Nikki Giovanni, Maxine Hong Kingston, and Richard Rodriguez to unknown writers compelled to relate their part in the civil rights movement, recall their family history as sharecroppers, recount experiences in the Japanese internment camps or in Indian boarding schools, or describe their struggle to succeed and contribute despite immense hardship and difficulty. Among these autobiographies the reader will also find those of sports celebrities, actors, explorers, and entrepreneurs. This bibliography brings together at one access point an important body of work, making it possible for the reader or researcher to identify and locate these books either through booksellers or through libraries. This volume constitutes volume one of a two book series; volume two is titled Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1995-2000.

The African American National Biography: Dihigo-Gwynn Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2008 An 8 volume reference set containing over 4 000 entries written by distinguished scholars. The African American National Biography is the most significant and expansive compilation of black lives in print today.

Yiddish Revolutionaries in Migration Frank Wolff, 2020-12-15 This ground breaking history of the General Jewish Labour Bund in migration investigates how the organisation transformed itself from a revolutionary protagonist in early twentieth century Russia to a socialist institution of secular Jewish life and yidishkayt for Jews in North and South America. By following thousands of activists' paths from the shtetls of Eastern Europe to the working class Yiddish neighbourhoods of New York and Buenos Aires, Frank Wolff traces the networks that connected these revolutionaries on both sides of the Atlantic, resulting in a richly detailed social history of this seminal transnational movement. This book was first published in 2014 as Neue Welten in der Neuen Welt. Die transnationale Geschichte des Allgemeinen Jdischen Arbeiterbundes 1897-1947 by Bhlau Verlag. Kln ISBN 978 3412222116
