greater equity and decolonisation Parallel Journeys Ruth Skrine, 2008 Beyond Liquidity Brad Pasanek, Simone Polillo, 2013-08-21 Liquidity or rather lack of it lies at the heart of the ongoing global financial crisis In this collection of essays the metaphor of money as liquidity and the model of crisis it entails is deliberated by a range of scholars from economics history anthropology literature and sociology This volume offers a rhetorical explanation of the social cultural and historical contexts in which metaphors of money are produced circulate and fail These essays first presented at After the Crash Beyond Liquidity a conference on money and metaphors held at the University of Virginia USA in October of 2009 were drafted in the wake of global uncertainty TARP bailouts the Great Recession programs of stimulus and austerity and recurrent threats of sovereign default in the EU They question the language of liquidity and flows that is characteristic of everyday business exposing what metaphors of money hide and explaining why the idea of liquidity has proved so durable This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Economy Radiomovies, Radiovision, Television Charles Francis Jenkins, 1929 Being Latino in Christ Orlando Crespo, 2009-08-20 Exploring what the Bible says about ethnic identity and drawing on his own journey to self understanding Orlando Crespo helps you discover for yourself what it means to be Latino American and most importantly a disciple of Christ Seeking Integrity in Teacher Education Ann Katherine Schulte, 2008-11-01 In this book a teacher educator examines her practice as a way of learning about teaching as well as challenging teacher education It is about how one teacher educator sought to transform the perspectives of her student teachers in order to better prepare them to teach diverse populations of students while challenging her own beliefs about how best to do that The author seeks integrity in her practice defined as her ability to enact what she teaches preservice teachers to do In particular this book is a self study that contributes to understanding the broader question How much can one affect and change the discourse within education when one also inhabits the characteristics that are privileged by the institution The teacher education literature supports the need to study this type of self reflection Other researchers have pointed out that the role of teacher educators cultural identities in reforming education has been largely ignored in the literature This book offers a unique perspective on the analogous relationship involved when a teacher educator teaches teachers how to examine the impact of their own identities on their teaching while examining that herself Professional Practice in Health, Education and the Creative Arts Joy Higgs, Angie Titchen, 2008-04-15 Society is rapidly changing its expectations of professionals in all arenas In this book we focus on changing patterns of professional practice in health education and the creative arts In each of these areas professional practice care is undergoing major reform in a complex and rapidly changing environment This multi authored text explores professional practice in four key dimensions doing knowing being and becoming These concepts have been chosen to represent professional practice as much more than applying learned knowledge in practice situations The authors present professional practice as a lived and dynamic experience as well as a process a service for and with others and a way of being and behaving The text explores the essential unity of knowledge and practice through discourse narrative imagery and critical debate This is a book for all those seeking to learn and to improve practice
