Parallels Artists Poets:

Parallels Oriole Farb Feshbach,1993 Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang,2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Parallels Oriole Farb Feshbach,Grace Glueck,Mary Ann Caws,Claire Heimark,Lucy D.

Rosenfeld,1993 A Cappella Ann Elizabeth Hostetler,2003 As an intricate choral music lovingly arranged this gathering makes manifest a rich community of accomplished voices a community whose immediate concerns are various whose informing circumstances diverge but whose common chord remains apprehensible and compelling a long devotion to peace attaining to a concurrent devotion to beauty Scott Cairns Familiar Quotations with Parallel Passages from Various

2 0 University of Mannheim language English abstract Modernist poetry which emerged in the first two decades of the 20th century had the main aim to eliminate rigid structures of romantic poetry The images and objects put into words as well as the visual appearance of the poem itself were to express their true nature and to be freed from metaphors they were connected with before William Carlos Williams is one of the most important poets of the American modernism He understands perfectly well to combine visual experience with words and the link from some of his poems to works of visual arts and vice versa is more than apparent This paper focuses on the correlation between those diverse pieces of art After a short introduction to the life of and influence on Williams in Chapter 2 Chapter 3 draws parallels between the work of Alfred Stieglitz and that of William Carlos Williams This does not only hold for similarities in the objects and image depicted as in Spring Showers and Young Sycamore which have been discussed in literature before It also applies to the mere force of expression that is analogical in the photograph Apples and Gable and the poem The Red Wheelbarrow The constellation of a poem by Williams serving as an inspiring source for a piece of visual arts is focused on in Chapter 4 Williams poem The Great Figure is analysed and paralleled with the painting I Saw the Figure Five in Gold by Charles Demuth As an example for the indirect inspirational character of Williams poem one work by Robert Indiana is introduced directly pointing to Demuth s painting Although Indiana is an important representative of American pop art which evolved out of criticism concerning some aspects of modernist art similarities in both concepts as well as in all three pieces of art can be identified Ludwig

Strauss: An Approach to His Bilingual “Parallel Poems” Julia Matveev,2018-08-06 This book is devoted to the study of the bilingual parallel poems of Ludwig Strauss Aachen 1892 Jerusalem 1953 created between 1934 and 1952 in Palestine Israel and which exist in two variants a Hebrew and a German version one of which is the original and the other a self translation The aim of this study is to compare the versions and their interpretation based on Strauss s theoretical essays on poetry and translation his political writings and works of literary criticism Special attention is paid to Strauss s concept linked with the idea of messianic redemption of poetry as a fore image of a future true community of men and as the earthly expression of the Absolute directed at interpreting divine revelation and its translation into human language In examining Strauss s experiments with self translation by which he aimed at establishing a dialogue between languages and between people and nations this study considers the two processes of translation from divine speech into human language and from one human language into another The Parallel Curriculum in the Classroom, Book 2 Carol Ann Tomlinson,Sandra N.
