Paramounts Rise And Fall:

Paramount's Rise and Fall Alex van der Tuuk, 2012-01-01 Paramount's Rise and Fall Alex van der Tuuk, 2003 The first complete examination of Paramount Records the label that introduced Ma Rainey Charley Patton Skip James and other blues greats to the world and the company that produced it The Rise and Fall of Paramount Records Scott Blackwood, 2023-03-01 Founded in 1917 Paramount Records incongruously was one of several homegrown record labels of a Wisconsin chair making company The company pinned no outsized hopes on Paramount Its founders knew nothing of the music business and they had arrived at the scheme of producing records only to drive sales of the expensive phonograph cabinets they had recently begun manufacturing Lacking the resources and the interest to compete for top talent Paramount's earliest recordings gained little foothold with the listening public On the threshold of bankruptcy the label embarked on a new business plan selling the music of Black artists to Black audiences It was a wildly successful move with Paramount eventually garnering many of the biggest selling titles in the race records era Inadvertently the label accomplished what others could not making blues jazz and folk music performed by Black artists a popular and profitable genre Paramount featured a deep roster of legendary performers including Louis Armstrong Charley Patton Ethel Waters Son House Fletcher Henderson Skip James Alberta Hunter Blind Blake King Oliver Blind Lemon Jefferson Ma Rainey Johnny Dodds Papa Charlie Jackson and Jelly Roll Morton Scott Blackwood's The Rise and Fall of Paramount Records is the story of happenstance But it is also a tale about the sheer force of the Great Migration and the legacy of the music etched into the shellacked grooves of a 78 rpm record With Paramount Records Black America found its voice Through creative nonfiction Blackwood brings to life the gifted artists and record producers who used Paramount to revolutionize American music Felled by the Great Depression the label stopped recording in 1932 leaving a legacy of sound pressed into cheap 78s that is among the most treasured and influential in American history Paramount's Rise and Fall Alex van der Tuuk, 2019 Record Cultures Kyle Barnett, 2021-07-26 Tracing the cultural technological and economic shifts that shaped the transformation of the recording industry The Rise & Fall of Paramount, 2014 A&R Pioneers Brian Ward, Patrick Huber, 2018-06-26 Association for Recorded Sound Collections Certificate of Merit for the Best Historical Research in Recorded Roots or World Music 2019 A R Pioneers offers the first comprehensive account of the diverse group of men and women who pioneered artists and repertoire A R work in the early US recording industry In the process they helped create much of what we now think of as American roots music Resourceful innovative and at times shockingly unscrupulous they scouted and signed many of the singers and musicians who came to define American roots music between the two world wars They also shaped the repertoires and musical styles of their discoveries supervised recording sessions and then devised marketing campaigns to sell the resulting records By World War II they had helped redefine the canons of American popular music and established the basic structure and practices of the modern recording industry Moreover though their musical interests talents and sensibilities varied enormously these A R pioneers created the template for the job that would subsequently become known as record producer Without Ralph Peer Art Satherley Frank Walker Polk C Brockman Eli Oberstein Don Law Lester Melrose J Mayo Williams John Hammond Helen Oakley Dance and a whole army of lesser known but often hugely influential A R representatives the music of Bessie Smith and Bob Wills of the Carter Family and Count Basie of Robert Johnson and Jimmie Rodgers may never have found its way onto commercial records and into the heart of America s musical heritage This is their story The Rise & Fall of Paramount, Volume Two (1928-32) Alex van der Tuuk,2014 Health, "the Paramount Asset." George Parrish,1928
