themselves this best selling resource carries on the essential message of its originator Dr Jerry Bigner and will continue to nurture future family scholars and practitioners for years to come Parenting in Contemporary Europe Mary Daly,Angela Abela,Council of Europe Publication,2007-01-01 This publication is an element of the Council of Europe's recent work in the field of positive parenting leading up to The Committee of Ministers Recommendation Rec 2006 19 on policy to support positive parenting The authors review and analyse the major changes affecting parenting in Europe arising from legal situations research and practice This work addresses the core issues related to positive parenting and non violent upbringing with particular emphasis on parents entitlement to support from the state in carrying out their parental tasks Five themes are focused upon The legal situation And The results of research what it means to be a parent according to The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child The Council of Europe and new scientific knowledge current thinking on the use of violence and corporal punishment against children responses to family policy especially in terms of support programs and services for parenting and families the particular problems and needs of parents and children in situations of social exclusion And The relationship between parenting and drug related behavior among children and teenagers The book also includes the text of the Recommendation Rec 2006 19 Keys for parents and Guidelines for professionals The Claims of Parenting Stefan Ramaekers,Judith Suissa,2011-09-15 Many sociological historical and cultural stories can be and have already been told about why it is that parents in post industrial western societies face an often overwhelming array of advice on how to bring up their children At the same time there have been several philosophical treatments of the legal moral and political issues surrounding issues of procreation the rights of children and the duties of parents as well as some philosophical accounts of the shifts in our underlying conceptualization of childhood and adult child relationships While this book partly builds on the insights of this literature it is significantly different in that it offers a philosophically informed discussion of the actual practical experience of being a parent with its deliberations judgements and dilemmas In probing the ethical and conceptual questions suggested by the parent child relationship this unique volume demonstrates the irreducible philosophical richness of this relationship and thus provides an important counter balance to the overly empirical and largely psychological focus of a great deal of parenting literature Unlike other analytic work on the parent child relationship and the educational role of parents this work draws on first person accounts of the day to day experience of being a parent in order to explore the ethical and epistemological aspects of this experience In so doing it exposes the limitations of some of the languages within which contemporary parenting is conceptualized and discussed and opens up a space for thinking about childrearing and the parent child relationship beyond and other than in terms of the languages which dominate the ways in which we generally think about it today Parenting Life Now Kelly Jean Welch,Victor Harris,2023-04-03 With its conversational tone and blend of theory and application Parenting Life Now offers an informative and practical introduction to the study of parenting rearing and educating children Authors Kelly J Welch and Victor William Harris illustrate the ways in which parents and professionals who work with parents from teachers and healthcare providers to therapists sociologists and childcare providers can implement best practices to provide effective quality education and care Comprehensive and up to date with the latest research this text engages students through a balanced integrated approach from the disciplines of early childhood education human development and family science Included with this title LMS Cartridge Import this title s instructor resources into your school s learning management system LMS and save time Don t use an LMS You can still access all of the same online resources for this title via the password protected Instructor Resource Site

Ubuntu Philosophy and Decolonising Social Work Fields of Practice in Africa Janestic Mwende Twikirize,Charlotte Tusasiirwe,Rugare

Mugumbate,2023-10-24 This book addresses a recurrent gap in social work literature by examining Ubuntu as an Indigenous African philosophy that informs social work beyond the largely residual and individualistic conceptualisation of social work that currently prevails in many contexts Owing to the lack of social work theories models and generally literature that is locally and contextually relevant most social work lecturers based in African context struggle to access learning materials and texts that centre local indigenous voices and worldviews It is within this context that the ubuntu philosophy has gained traction There is increasing consensus that Ubuntu as an African philosophy and way of life has the potential to be used as a decolonising framework for social work education and practice Theorising from Ubuntu can influence and be the foundation for African social work theory and knowledge social work values and ethics social work research and policy and Ubuntu informing different fields of social work practice like social work with older people children and young people ubuntu and poverty alleviation ubuntu and the environment among others Drawing together social workers engaged in education research policy practice to theorise Ubuntu and its tenets philosophies and values this book shows how it can be a foundation for a decolonised more relevant social work education and practice in African contexts
