Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Passion Brent Willock, Rebecca Coleman Curtis, Lori C. Bohm, 2017-12-14 Passion The word brims with and exudes power movement intensity vitality desire and fulfillment Its multifaceted meanings include eroticism rage sex suffering drive commitment dedication and love On the one hand it embodies a quality to be embraced and lived fully to make life meaningful and worthwhile On the other it is sometimes to be treated with suspicion reined in subjected to the dictates of reason While it brightens existence and its departure makes life dull many passions may prove unbearable The manifold connotations of passion make it highly relevant to psychoanalysis yet so far no book has explored the many facets of this pervasive theme This book provides a comprehensive guide that will sensitize readers to the omnipresent importance of passionate emotion in the clinical setting and throughout all areas and times of life It bursts with thought provoking ideas Challenging cases are illuminated by penetrating reflections and novel applications and combinations of theoretical perspectives Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Passion explores the many ways in which very strong emotions passions can be understood and worked with in clinical contexts The contributions cover such key topics as psychosis and violence emotions in childhood sexuality secure and insecure attachments the role of passion in seeking meaning passion and transition space and transference and countertransference This book will be of great help to all psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists struggling to assist patients and perhaps themselves in locating their passions channeling and expressing them in meaningful ways and overcoming obstacles to their fulfillment

Passion, Shame, and the Freedom to Become Peter Shabad, 2024-12-09 This book examines how humans can overcome feelings of shame through self acceptance and regain their innate passion and freedom to grow Peter Shabad examines in detail how self shaming and passivity are intertwined with the fatalism of self pity envy resentment and ultimately regret for not seizing the vital moments in life From birth on children attempt to contribute to the human endeavor through their innate passion Parental receptivity enables a child to plant seeds of belonging inspiring the generative passion necessary for furthering development Exposed vulnerability due to the lack of receptivity leads to feelings of shame and self consciousness as human beings we interpret our misfortunes and limitations as punishments and reverse our passion into an inhibited passivity Shabad envisions psychotherapy as a pathway through which individuals learn to inclusively accept all aspects of their inner lives in order to embark on their journey of self acceptance He emphasizes the need for therapists to view patients as active agents in this process This book is a must read for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and anyone interested in developing a deeper understanding of the dynamics of shame and passion in our lives
